All Jews Are Zionists - Nailing The Lie

Origin of Zionism

...the origin of Zionism was the Jewish people's desire to return to their ancestral land of Israel after centuries of exile and persecution. It was not a political movement, but a religious and national one. The Zionists were the first to recognize the Jewish people's right to their own state, and they were the first to fight for it. All Jews Are Zionists - Nailing The Lie

One of the most widely held myths among anti-Semites and the "Jew-wise" is that all Jews are fervent Zionists and uncompromising supporters of the State of Israel. Zionism is a fascistic, nationalistic movement, far more bloodthirsty and ruthless than Nazism - on which it is based and with which the Zionist movement openly cooperated in the 1930s. This gives credence to the belief among the more extreme anti-Semites that the entire concept of evil is Jewish, and if only we can get rid of the Jews, all will be peace, light and happiness.

Absurd as this idea of a uniquely Jewish evil may be, the nature of Zionism and the activities of Zionist leaders and terrorists makes it a lot easier to swallow than it should be. Fortunately, the idea is demonstrably false, because not only are not all Jews Zionists, but some of the most outspoken critics and enemies of Zionist Imperialism have been and continue to be Jews. To understand how the belief in universal Jewish acceptance and endorsement of Zionism came about it is necessary to delve into the murky history of this dreadful, inhuman philosophy.

Origins of Zionism

Although the concept has been around since Biblical times, the modern Zionist movement only began with Theodor Herzl (1860-1904). Herzl, a lawyer, dramatist and journalist, was inspired by the Dreyfus case in which the Jewish army officer was framed for treason. (1) Although Dreyfus wasn't framed because of his Jewish origins, anti-Semitism became a major issue in the affair. Herzl was correspondent for an Austrian newspaper at the time, and an assimilationist. The Dreyfus case convinced Herzl that he had found the solution to the Jewish Question and transformed him into an ardent Jewish nationalist. A great admirer of anti-Semites, Herzl wrote "Anti-Semitism increases day by day and hour by hour among the nations; indeed, it is bound to increase, because the causes of its growth continues to exist and cannot be removed." (2)

In the same work he wrote of the Jews: "When we sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of all revolutionary parties; at the same time, when we rise, there rises also our terrible power of the purse." (3)

This shows that even in the late 19th Century the power of international finance Jewry, personified by the Rothschild family, was feared by the Gentiles, and, as A.K. Chesterton observed, "The attraction for a certain type of Jew of subversive activities cannot in honesty be gainsaid." (4)

Herzl's solution was simple, or so he thought: the Jews were a nation and until they had their own homeland they would continue to exist as they always had, as parasites on their host. This reference to Jewish "parasitism" was an allusion to the role Jews played in the rise of modern capitalism, and is the sort of poison used by "socialists" today to condemn capitalism. Karl Marx had similar ideas. (5)

In 1896, Herzl published his classic pamphlet The Jewish State, (6) originally Addressed to the Rothschilds, but in the first instance it did not go down at all well, and he was regarded as something of a crank. (7) However, the Zionist movement grew, and the concept of a national home for the Jews was, and remains, a good one.

The site of the national home was the source of much debate. Kenya was mooted, as was Madagascar. (8) Eventually however the home of the ancient Hebrews, Palestine, was decided upon, in spite of the fact that the overwhelming majority of today's Jews - Ashkenazic Jewry, are descended not from the ancient Hebrews but from the Khazars, a tribe from beyond the Pale of Settlement in Russia. (9) The problem with the choice of Palestine for the Jewish National Homeland is that, contrary to Zionist propaganda today, it was already occupied by the Palestinians.

As the Zionist movement grew, its leaders, including the Russian-born chemist and schemer Chaim Weizmann (1874-1952), conspired with key members of the British government to bring about a declaration in favour of the Jewish state in Palestine. (10) Eventually it was agreed that the Zionists would drag the United States into World War I and that in return the British government would give spurious legality to Zionist aspirations. Thus, the land of the Palestinian people was horse-traded with the British in return for the spilling of American blood. (11)

Hand In Glove With The Nazis

Still, the Zionist movement was far from popular and would probably have disintegrated if it hadn't been for the rise of Hitler. Although today Zionism's apologists emphatically deny it, the German Zionist leaders were enthusiastic collaborators with the Nazis. (12) In fact, collaboration is probably the wrong word, for, as the Jewish Holocaust Revisionist J.G. Burg (13) pointed out at the 1988 "thought crime" trial of Ernst Zündel in Canada, collaboration is something which occurs between antagonists, which the Nazis and the Zionists never were. (14) Writing in The Hijack State, the anti-Zionist Jew John Rose claims that on Hitler's assumption of power, the Zionist Federation of Germany sent a memo to the new Führer which read in part:

"...Zionism hopes to be able to win the collaboration even of a government fundamentally hostile to Jews, because in dealing with the Jewish question no sentimentalities are involved but a real problem whose solution interests all peoples, and at the present moment especially the German people." (15) Mr Rose, who is a member of the Socialist Workers' Party, makes one significant mistake in his book: he believes Israel to be a tool of American Imperialism rather than America to be a tool of Zionist Imperialism.

The Zionists cooperated with the Nazis right up until 1942. So highly was the Zionist movement thought of by the Nazi hierarchy that Dr Goebbels ordered the minting of a special medal with a swastika on one side and a Star of David on the other. The Nazi newspaper Der Angriff ran a series of articles praising Zionism, and Zionist terror gangs were even trained by the Nazis. (16)

Treachery And Consolidation Of Power

By 1942, it became obvious that the Nazis had bitten off more than they could chew, (17) so, with the pragmatism for which this perfidious movement of self-aggrandisement has since become renowned, the Zionists turned against their former friends. They also turned against the British, and, at the very moment the British and the Allies were fighting to save the Jews of Europe from the "gas chambers", the Zionists began waging a terrorist war against them.

The campaign in Palestine was waged not only against the British but against the Arabs, and, although ordinary Jews were unhappy about this treachery, they were bullied, coerced and threatened into fighting a war of "liberation". (18) The State of Israel was finally established after the massacre of some two hundred and fifty innocent men, women and children in the Arab village of Deir Yassin and the expulsion of the Palestinian people. One of the mass murderers responsible for Deir Yassin and many other outrages, Menachem Begin, not only went on to become Prime Minister of Israel, but, incredibly, to be jointly awarded the Nobel Peace Prize with President Anwar Sadat (19) in 1978. (20)

The Nazi persecution of the Jews, which the Zionists encouraged, may have been instrumental in the establishment of the State of Israel, but there were two other important factors: the desire of the American Imperialists to create an outpost in the Middle East, and the subjugation of American Jewry to Zionist "ideals".

The tragedy of European Jewry was to open the door to the Zionists. They exploited the "Holocaust" for all it was worth, claiming that the Jews who were in displaced persons camps had to go somewhere, and where else could they go but to Palestine? (21)

"Membership of the Zionist Organization of America jumped from 43,000 in 1940 to 250,000 in 1948, and suffrage rights in the World Zionist Congress rose nearly fivefold." Funds sent to Palestine also increased dramatically, from $8 million sent in 1930-9 to $200 million from 1939-48. (22) American Jews in particular have continued to send enormous sums of money to Israel and to lobby vociferously on behalf of the state, principally because they have been intimidated or blackmailed into it. Any Jew who does not support the State of Israel more or less unconditionally is made to feel like a moral leper or accused of self-hatred.

It is clear from this that although many anti-Semites believe the myth that all Jews are Zionists, it is the Zionists themselves who created and continue to nurture the myth, and so also to callously ferment and exploit anti-Semitism. "Anti-Semite" has become just about the most overused word in the English language. Any Gentile who attacks Zionist aspirations or perfidy is immediately attacked as an anti-Semite, and Jews are almost invariably taken in by this piffle. What they seldom realise is that when Zionists attack "anti-Semites", it is not the Jewish community they are defending, but their own perverted, grasping ideology.

Jews, particularly American Jews, also support Israel for another reason. They have been convinced by Zionist propaganda that Israel is an island of democracy surrounded by a sea of Arab tyranny, and that unless they give their all, the Arabs will drive the Israelis into the sea. (23) Nothing could be further from the truth, for while there is little in the way of democracy in the Middle East, the government of Israel remains every bit as tyrannical as any of the Arab "dictatorships".

In December 1992, not for the first or even for the hundredth time, the Israeli government put two fingers up to world opinion and expelled four hundred and fifteen Palestinian men into the desert on the mere suspicion of their being sympathetic to an Arab "terrorist" group. The crimes and atrocities of Zionism would take an encyclopaedia to catalogue; besides the war of "liberation" they include murders of diplomats, British soldiers and policemen, shooting Palestinian schoolchildren, dynamiting people's homes and throwing them off the roofs of their houses, beating and torturing of Arabs arbitrarily arrested, and murdering Jewish refugees. (24)

Again, the picture the Western media paints of Israel is of a stable Middle East democracy surrounded by hostile Arabs, but this is belied by the resistance movements within Israel against Zionist Imperialism. Why then do we not hear about this in Britain, the United States and elsewhere?

The Zionist Occupation Government

Anti-Semites have a very simple explanation for the West's tolerance of the horrors of Zionism: the West, in particular Capitol Hill, is controlled by the Zionist Occupation Government, (ZOG). In order to validate this seemingly absurd claim they point to the "disproportionate" numbers of Jews in government and the media as proof of an all-encompassing Zionist conspiracy. Convenient though this hypothesis may be, it does not stand up to the slightest scrutiny. Most of the Jews in government are there on ability. Professor Hans Eysenck for example points out that Jews on average rate 15 IQ points higher than white Gentiles and about 30 points higher than blacks. (25) There are very large numbers of Jews in the media, and substantial tranches of the American media in particular are Jewish-owned, including at one time every studio in Hollywood, (26) but again, this is not proof of conspiracy any more than the massive ownership of British retail businesses by Asians is proof of an Asian conspiracy. How then does "ZOG" work?

The Zionist control of U.S. foreign policy and of the American media is less a conspiracy than a mind-set. This mind-set has been imposed on the American people and the British people not by some mythical Jewish financial hegemony (27) or world plot, but by the simple methods of intensive lobbying and emotional blackmail. Lobbying is not confined to "Jewish" organisations, (28) nor even to "ethnic" ones, but the servants of Imperial Zion have been at it longer than most, and they have certainly turned it into a fine art. (29) To cite just one example, in 1975, after he had mildly praised PLO Chairman Yasser Arafat, (30) a US Senator received within the space of one week twenty-two hundred telegrams and four thousand letters, 95 percent of them hostile. (31) Such media blitzes by Organised Zionist Jewry are two a penny, especially with any matter relating to Israel.

The Zionists have also used their muscle to remove politicians who refuse to tow their line of fawning subservience to the Zionist entity. (32) Zionist emotional blackmail tactics are even more effective, as stated, they simply brand anyone who opposes their aspirations "anti-Semitic". They have also used the "Holocaust" to instil a massive guilt complex in white Gentiles, not just the Germans, who have paid massive reparations to the State of Israel for the six million Jews allegedly murdered by the Nazis. (34)

If the Zionists' hate campaigns have caused pain and unnecessary suffering to Gentiles, (Germans and Palestinians in particular), they have also caused much agony for Jews, especially the pious religious Jews throughout the Diaspora, who, uninvolved with politics, live their lives constantly in the shadow of anti-Semitism. It is these Jews, Torah Jews - Hassidim and other Orthodox sects who are visibly recognisable as Jews - who are more often than not singled out for attacks by anti-Semites or reprisals by vengeful Arabs. Observant Jews who live under Halakhah never break the arms of Palestinian "rioters", throw them off the roofs of their houses or dynamite their homes: the Talmud specifically forbids things like that. But the secular Zionists have their own law and their own moral code, one which is best summed up by the phrase Israel über alles.

Finally, it should be pointed out that anti-Zionist Jews, the Neturei Karta (Friends of Jerusalem) sect for example, have themselves been persecuted by the Zionists. According to the Neturei Karta, the State of Israel can only be established by the Messiah, and clearly neither David Ben-Gurion nor any of his even more murderous successors fits that description. (35)

The idea that all Jews are Zionists (36) is then manifestly a lie, but it is a lie that is often repeated in earnest by anti-Semites and by their fellow travellers, while it is perpetuated wilfully by Zionist Jewry. According to Zionist organisations, anti-Semitism is rife in the West in particular and continues to grow hourly. Their "solution" for this is more and more "anti-racist" legislation. And the mass subversion of individual rights.

The truth is very different: while only a fool or an ignoramus would deny the reality of anti-Semitism, it is no more common and indeed a lot less common than any other form of group hatred. We live in a world where men must hate; why should they hate Jews less than they hate anyone else? Organised anti-Semitism will never meet with any success, provided we preserve democratic institutions, including freedom of speech. The picture the Zionists paint of pogroms and an imminent "Holocaust" unless we surrender all our civil liberties and hard won freedoms is just not true. Who can remember the last time a British Jew was murdered simply because he was a Jew?

In reality, most Jews are murdered by Jews, most white Gentiles by white Gentiles, most blacks by blacks, and so on. Most people of all races are more likely to be murdered by members of their own group, friends, or even spouses. In this the Jewish people are no different from anyone else. Indeed, more than any other ethnic group, by their continued acquiescence to the cancer of Zionism, they are in every sense their own worst enemy.

Four Zionist Groups Who Peddle Their Poison In Britain And The United States

It would be nigh on impossible to list every Zionist organisation or group in the West, there must be literally hundreds if not thousands. Many, like the Board of Deputies of "British" Jews, are not devoted exclusively to the suppression of civil liberties and churning out hate propaganda but carry out the far more mundane work of organising Jewish charities, fund-raising, community liaison and so on. Below are listed four of the major Zionist "thought police" organisations.

The Anti-Defamation League

Founded in 1913 under the auspices of B'nai B'rith, (37) the ADL monitors the American news media for any manifestation of "anti-Semitism" and keeps editors in line with threats of Jewish advertising bans and the like. When the ADL was founded it unquestionably served a useful purpose. Jews were at one time subject to severe, arbitrary "anti-Semitism" in the United States as indeed in Britain. This was not for the most part outright Jew-hating, but the kind of petty bigotry and snob-bishness which most people today find irksome. (38) The ADL and Gother organisations also helped counter Nazi propaganda, although the ADL in particular has never been slow to peddle its own propaganda, including outright lies.

Two ADL staffers, Forster and Epstein, have written a number of books about anti-Semitism, real and imagined. One such book, The New Anti-Semitism, (39) branded the musical Jesus Christ Superstar "anti-Semitic"!

Alfred Lilienthal said of this book that it "contains no index, probably purposely because it would have quickly revealed an imposing roster of responsible people listed as 'anti-Semites.'" (40) He refers to the authors as the "the high priests of anti-Semitism". (41)

AIPAC

The American Israel Public Affairs Committee is the major Zionist lobbying body in the United States. Its job is to convince the gullible goyim that a strong Israel is in the best interests of the United States and to maintain America's so-called "special relationship" with the Zionist entity - a euphemism for screwing dollars out of the American taxpayer in order to oppress the Palestinian people. AIPAC also smears as anti-Semitic all opponents of Israel, and raises funds from the Jewish community by feeding off its paranoia.

AIPAC has a staff of approximately 67; (42) it was founded in 1959. (43) So great is AIPAC's power that it even succeeded in ousting Senator William Fulbright, who was Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Fulbright had been so foolish as to announce to the nation on CBS TV that "Israel controls the Senate". (44)

The Board of Deputies of "British" Jews

This organisation was set up in 1760 as a sort of Jewish parliament. The Board of Deputies has many functions ranging from the supervision of shechita to general welfare to lobbying for laws against group libel, specifically against Jews but increasingly to cover all other forms of racial "discrimination" and "incitement". (45) Except Zionism of course. The Board has also repeatedly tried to outlaw Holocaust Revisionism and has used every dirty trick under the sun to suppress racists, Holocaust Revisionists and anyone its members don't like. Its persistent assaults on democracy, free speech in particular, are unquestionably a major source of anti-Semitism in the United Kingdom, but it is just possible that the not-so-learned Elders of Woburn House are too thick-skinned to realise it. The real hub of the Zionist octopus as it were is the Board's so-called "defence committee". At the time of writing its director is Mike Whine - we kid you not, that really is his name.

Searchlight

Searchlight is a so-called "anti-fascist" magazine. Founded either in 1964 or 1962 as a "news agency" - depending on which version of the fairy tale you read, (46) it very cleverly does not concern itself with Zionism, and has certainly never condemned Zionist atrocities. Instead, it attacks white nationalist groups as fascist, anti-Semitic and neo-Nazi. Searchlight works hand in glove with both the Board of Deputies of "British" Jews and the British Secret State. In recent years however it has shown itself in its true colours by attacking anti-Zionist groups and individuals, smearing them as anti-Semitic, police informants or as neo-Nazi collaborators.

The real power of Searchlight though is the stranglehold this fascistic organisation has gained over the British media. Almost every smear story on the extreme right which has appeared in the British media over the past twenty and more years has been fed to it either by Searchlight or by someone associated with this error-prone magazine.

Like its master though, Searchlight's power is on the wane. It has increasingly been exposed as a tool of the Secret State and a subversive influence upon the (equally undemocratic) "anti-racist" movement. Many black groups now refuse to work with it; anarchists, who have long recognised it for what it is, have been victims of its smears, some of which have gone over the top and rebounded on its publisher and editor Gerry Gable. Another year or two, if not sooner, and it will be discredited completely.

Confirmation of the Power of the Zionist Octopus - From an Impeccably pro-Zionist Source

Further confirmation of the power of international Zionist Jewry comes from a staunchly pro-Israel source, Rabbi Meir Kahane, the Zionist fanatic and founder of both the Kach movement and the quasi-terrorist Jewish Defence League. Kahane was assassinated in New York in November 1990. His uncompromising policy for a Greater Israel and expulsion of the Palestinians was a bit too candid even for the Israel-über-alles brigade, and he was denounced as a racist, fascist and even a Nazi. (47)

In his book Uncomfortable Questions For Comfortable Jews, (48) Kahane revealed that the same dirty tricks the Zionists use against anti-Semites (real and imagined) were used against him.

"I have seen Jewish Establishments in the United States pressure hotels and halls to cancel contracts for meetings..." (49)

These involved threats of "possible violence" and losing Jewish business. (50)

Kahane railed at the leaders of Diaspora Jewry, "The Jewish' leaders, the feudal barons of the Exile. How they hate and fear Kahane and move heaven and earth to silence him there. How they frantically use their awesome money and power...to prevent Kahane from appearing...Through the weapons of fear and monetary blackmail, they rule unfettered, never elected by the community, never questioned by the bleating flocks." (51)

Shades of Herzl's "terrible power of the purse" or even the Protocols of Zion. (52)

Kahane is incensed at the way Jews are manipulated by their leaders. He says, "The feudal barons of Israel and the Jewish Establishment leaders in the United States and other parts of the Exile, control the Jewish community in a way that is almost breathtaking in its awesomeness. They use this power to put into motion their drive to smear, defame and destroy..." (53)

He was referring to himself here, but the point should be taken.

Judaism or Zionism?

The traditional Orthodox Jewish view of Zionism is that it is a spiritual concept, one of the major tenets of the Jewish faith. Like the aforementioned Neturei Karta, Orthodox Jews believe that only the Messiah can establish the State of Israel. The Diaspora - the great dispersion of the Jewish people throughout the world - is seen as a divine act, and anti-Semitism is seen as a divine means of keeping the Jews on the straight and narrow until the Messiah comes. (54)

The Jewish religion is implacably opposed to the concept of Zionism as expressed by the secular Zionist movement, but the secular and for the most part atheistical Zionists have such a stranglehold over Orthodox Judaism that even senior rabbis are afraid to speak out over Zionist atrocities and human rights abuses. The reason Lord Jakobovits retired early from his post as Chief Rabbi was because he had been so foolish as to suggest in the mildest of terms that the Palestinians should have basic human rights. (55)

The idea that the creation of the State of Israel is in accord with Biblical prophesy is totally untenable. Even arch-Zionist Rabbi Meir Kahane recognised this. Kahane condemned Israel unequivocally:

"Israel today is a state with a rampant drug problem, a spiralling crime rate with ever-increasing 'hard' offences such as murder, severe assault and rape; vandalism and extortion by school children against property and fellow students; an alarmingly large number of prostitutes; hard-core pornography and one of the largest rates of children born out of wedlock and abortions in the world." (56)

When one adds to this the military occupation, the torture of arbitrarily arrested Palestinian prisoners, the dynamiting of their homes and the murders of their children, Israel doesn't sound much like the Promised Land, does it?

Jewish Condemnation of Zionist Atrocities, and the Intifada

The creation of the State of Israel was viewed by many Jews as virtually a Biblical miracle. We have already disposed of that nonsense. Rather it was a tribute to the power of Organised Jewry and powerful financial forces - Jewish and Gentile - which schemed to bring it into being for their own sinister ends.

For the first few years, the first decades of its existence in fact, the State of Israel was romanticised, and by and large it got everything it asked for and more, including the unqualified and uncritical support of all but a tiny fraction of Diaspora Jewry. The picture was painted of gallant little Israel, an island of democracy in a sea of Arab tyranny. Even after the Sinai War (1956), the Six Day War (1967), and the Yom Kippur War (1973), this was possible.

True, there was the United Nations' 1975 condemnation of Zionism as a form of racism; and there were anti-Zionists like British actress Vanessa Redgrave who was brave enough to risk the wrath of the Zionist octopus by speaking up for Palestinian rights. But by and large, critics of Zionist atrocities could simply be denounced as anti-Semitic (or cranks if they happened to be Jewish). To ram the message home, all it was necessary to do was to flash a few photographs of Belsen on the TV screen or photographs in the press and scream "Isn't six million Jews enough?" Then there was the monstrosity Holocaust, which was spewed out by the Zionist movie moguls in 1978. (57) The Jews as well as the goyim were kept firmly in line. Then another "Holocaust" happened.

In September 1982, the Israelis committed an act of genocide in the Lebanon. True to form, they didn't soil their own hands with it - presumably they were too busy torturing Palestinians and dynamiting their houses. Instead, they sent their murderous friends the "Christian" Phalangists into the camps at Sabra and Shatila where they butchered hundreds of innocent people, mostly women and children. The London Times reported that the Red Cross had counted 293 bodies which had been removed from the camps. (58) According to one report, the Israelis gave the Phalangists bulldozers to bury the dead. (59) During the liberation of Belsen at the end of the Second World War, such emotive photographs were used by the Allies as "proof" of the Nazis' alleged genocide of the Jews. No such creative camerawork was permitted here, but for a time at least it seemed that world Jewry had finally got the message.

Jewish organisations worldwide condemned the outrage. The Chief Rabbi, Sir (later Lord) Immanuel Jakobovits, said he was shattered. (60) The American Jewish Committee and the American Jewish Congress issued a joint statement calling for a full enquiry, "We believe that Israel owes this to itself and to the civilized world." (61) Even "Nazi Hunter" Simon Wiesenthal - to his everlasting credit - called for the criminals to be brought to book. (62) Jews could not demand trials of Nazis suspected of murdering millions of fellow-Jews in the Second World War and then not expect the criminals in Lebanon to be tried, he said. (63)

In Israel, there were mass protests, (64) while an article in the creeping left wing New Statesman showed Jewish protesters outside Israeli offices in New York, one carrying a poster bearing the legend LEBANESE HOLOCAUST. (65)

However, like the gang of murderers, crooks and thugs they are, the Israeli government ignored world opinion and issued a communique claiming: "On the New Year, a blood libel was levelled at the Jewish State and its government, against the Israeli Defence Forces." (66) It also refused to cooperate with the inquiry and advised Israelis not to. (67) This should have surprised no one. Thirty years earlier, Defence Minister Ariel (Butcher of Beirut) Sharon had ordered a massacre of 66 men, women and children in the West Bank village of Qibua. (68)

Although there are still Israeli peace campaigners, and Jews remain some of the strongest critics of Zionist Imperialism worldwide, the outrage over the massacres of Sabra and Shatila did not last. It was soon "business as usual" for the Israelis, with the proxy Zionist Occupation Government of AIPAC and its fellow travellers demanding more "aid" from the United States government and smearing all its detractors as "anti-Semitic".

However, in December 1987, a new era of resistance to Zionist tyranny was born when Palestinian youths in the West Bank revolted against their oppressors, throwing stones at Israeli soldiers. Like the cowards and hypocrites they are - only Jewish suffering matters to them, remember - the occupiers began shooting back in "self-defence". In the first year of the uprising - known by its Arabic name, intifada - 400 Palestinians were killed and some 20,000 injured. (69) Many of those murdered by the Israeli "soldiers" are children. (70)

Although at the time of writing, the intifada is entering its sixth year and the United States is still under siege from the noisy, vociferous Zionist lobby, there are signs that the wind of change is blowing over the Middle East. And in the West. Where before, only anti-Semites and conspiracy cranks dared to even mention the power of the Zionist lobby, (71) now even powerful politicians, some with the most philo-Semitic antecedents, have begun to challenge it.

The PLO's representative in London openly refers to Capitol Hill as "those other Occupied Territories", and the Zionists can't always get everything they want by screaming "anti-Semite" at the tops of their voices and bombarding the press with images of Belsen. The "Holocaust" weapon no longer has the efficacy it once had, except when used against the likes of the British National Party and other loony right wing groups, who will never be able to muster any popular support anyway.

An increasing number of Jewish academics and politicians have also joined in calls for justice for the Palestinian people and the creation of a Palestinian state. These include the Labour MP Gerald Kaufman, a fawning "anti-racist" Jewish "liberal", the type who loudly condemns any manifestation of racial consciousness in Britain's white majority. (72)

Although anti-Semites still attempt to portray all Jews as Zionists, and the Zionists themselves are still hard at work promoting this belief, the lie is dead in all but name. Not all Jews are Zionists, increasingly they are turning against this poisonous ideology. Torah Jews in particular are beginning to realise that their religion, the Mother of all religions, has been hijacked by a vicious, inhuman, "nationalistic" movement. An "ideology" which has only survived for so long by deceit, treachery and emotional blackmail. And whose days are nearly over.

Appendix: The Mendacity of Zion and the Power of the Octopus: Two Unpublished Book Reviews

Over the past few years a number of books have been published which speak of the Israeli government and the Israel lobby in the United States in less than glowing terms. Twenty, even ten years ago, such books would have been routinely branded "anti-Semitic" and consigned to the memory hole. Although they still are denounced as such, and although organisations such as the ADL and the Board of Deputies of "British" Jews will continue to wail and gnash their teeth over any criticism at all of the "Chosen Race" stoically refusing to believe that any Jew anywhere at any time could ever be capable of any act of evil, the gullible goyim are beginning to wake up. So, fortunately, are the Jews, who are slowly realising how they are manipulated and exploited by Imperial Zion. This latter cannot be overemphasised, neither can the increasingly vocal opposition within Israel.

The two book reviews which follow, both unpublished, (both were written for a now, unfortunately, defunct publication), give an insight into the way the black veil of censorship is slowly being lifted from the public on both sides of the Atlantic and in Israel itself on the genocidal policies of the fascistic Israeli government. But a word of warning: Zionism may be the greatest threat to world peace extant, but it is by far from the only one. The really important question is not how have the Zionists been able to get away with their mendacity for so long, but why have the tables turned so dramatically over the past ten years? The answer certainly has something to do with the increased perception of the suffering of the Palestinian people, but equally it has a lot to do with power politics, in which, ultimately, Zionism may yet prove to be merely another pawn in the game.

Secret Wars And Dirty Tricks

Few people have made more noise about persecution than the Jews, the Israelis in particular. Whether or not they have suffered more pogroms, massacres, ostracism and hatred than any other ethnic, racial or religious group remains to be seen, but one thing is for sure, they can certainly give as good as they get. In Israel's Secret Wars, Ian Black and Benny Morris thoroughly document the activities of Israeli Intelligence: the world-renowned (and feared) Mossad, and the two lesser known but equally ruthless services: Aman (Military Intelligence) and the Shin Bet, (Counter Espionage).

This book is one long catalogue of horrors - from the illegal kidnapping and judicial murder of Adolf Eichmann in the early 60s to the 1973 murder of a Moroccan waiter in the Norwegian town of Lilliehammer and the 1981 bombing of Iraq's nuclear reactor. If the Eichmann affair can be justified by the nature and extent of his alleged crimes, the only crime Ahmed Bouchiki was ever guilty of was looking like Ali Hassan Salameh, a Black September terrorist.

The authors base their book on official sources, newspaper reports and interviews with former Israeli Intelligence personnel, including a few who agreed to be identified. This is a thoroughly good (if heavy) read, although it does rather gloss over the Palestinian expulsion and the Jews' terrorist war against the British, (at a time when they were busy saving European Jewry from the "Final Solution" be it noted). The intifada is barely mentioned either, and nothing at all is said about the practice of shooting Palestinian schoolchildren for the heinous crime of throwing stones at occupying soldiers, but, surprisingly, the late Moshe Dayan comes out of this book very well, as does Irgun terrorist and (recently deceased) mass murderer Menachem Begin, who was later to be elected prime minister.

If all this seems terribly one-sided, it is the authors' fault, but another thing they have stressed too little if at all is the resistance of the Israeli public. Israelis themselves have been less than satisfied at some of the crimes that have been committed in their name, and to be fair, if the Arabs are less murderous than the Israelis, the main reason for this is that they are far less efficient.

Though however much one may condemn the fascistic philosophy of political Zionism, the existence of Israel is every bit as much a reality as the existence of the United States. One can hardly redress the enormous injustice perpetrated against the Palestinian people by perpetrating an equally great injustice against the Israelis. It is for this reason that the two-state solution to the Palestinian problem is the only feasible one. Though the evidence presented in this book seems to indicate that this is something which Israel's paranoid security services and equally paranoid government will never allow.

Israel's Secret Wars: A History of Israel's Intelligence Services by Ian Black and Benny Morris, is published by Futura, (1992). 634 pages. Indexed, thoroughly referenced.

Give Us What We Want (or we'll call you anti-Semitic)

In liberal democracies, pressure groups, powerful minority voting blocks and lobbies often wield influence out of all proportion to the numbers in the population they represent. Or claim to represent. But when the lobby concerned is a Jewish lobby, it doesn't just wield enormous power, but installs fear and often spinelessness in Gentile and Jew alike by the inclusion of two other and very formidable weapons: emotional blackmail (usually in relation to the "Holocaust") and the fear of being branded anti-Semitic.

Any testimony to the reality of Jewish power is sure to provoke this latter, and usually groundless, charge. Genuine anti-Semites have all sorts of absurd ideas and fantasies about Jewish control of the media, the money supply and, in the United States, the ZOG (Zionist Occupation Government). Some of these ideas and writings are pure hate - the Protocols of Zion is the most infamous example - so one must tread warily whenever the question of "Organised Jewry" is mentioned. Nevertheless, with problems of the Middle East which arose by the 1948 creation of the state of Israel and the subsequent Palestinian Diaspora, it should not come as a complete surprise as this controversy lingers on, that even liberal politicians and statesmen are becoming aware of the reality of Jewish power and the dirty tricks and tactics used by the American Zionist lobby.

Paul Findley, a US Congressman for over twenty years, has written a book which should rest proudly on every anti-Semite's bookshelf. That's the bad news. The even worse news is that far from being a raving anti-Semite, Findley is one such liberal with impeccable credentials, and his book They Dare To Speak Out is thoroughly, almost embarrassingly referenced.

Findley first became embroiled in this most controversial issue when he secured the release of an American political prisoner who had been incarcerated for espionage in South Yemen. Taking an armful of gifts with him, including three scholarships for Yemeni students, he accomplished his mission then went on to meet Arafat himself and to become an outspoken critic of the US Israel lobby. This quickly brought him into conflict with AIPAC (the American Israel Public Affairs Committee), and it is this Orwellian organisation that his book is mostly about.

Findley documents in minute detail how AIPAC activists silence all opposition, how Arafat helped the US during the hostage crisis yet was betrayed, how Zionists use their money and votes to keep dissenting politicians in line, how academic freedom is stifled and how Jews themselves are controlled by the lobby.

This book is so candid that it is embarrassing. Hence, the Israelis always get what they want, whether it is funding or weapons, so why not give it to them anyway without getting their backs up? Telephone blitzes, mass mailings and wailing and whining about the Holocaust all come into it. Findley also raises the question of anti-Arab discrimination and stereotyping which, if it were applied to Jews, would lead to screams of outrage.

However, while the author has done a terrific job exposing the vested Jewish interests in the United States, he fights shy of mentioning the equally powerful Gentile vested interests which are behind the Americans' sudden realisation that the Palestinians have rights. In particular, although he cites its journal Foreign Affairs, he does not discuss the role of the Council on Foreign Relations, nor does he even mention the Trilateral Commission.

The CFR, which was founded in 1919, is widely regarded by conspiracy theorists as the invisible government of the United States, while the Trilateral Commission is a formidable "think tank" totally subservient to the mega-billion dollar Rockefeller interests. (73) Although Findley is definitely not a member of the Trilateral Commission, he is an "insider". (74) Paradoxically, Jews are also prominent in both the CFR and the Trilateral Commission, as indeed they were in the Carter administration, which Findley claims was given a rough ride by the Zionists.

Although Findley may be sincere when he claims he wants to see a just settlement in the Middle East, he has told less than the whole truth. If the United States does eventually succeed in breaking the stranglehold the Zionists have long held over US foreign policy, it is doubtful if its new masters will serve interests which will be any less alien to the American dream.

None of the foregoing should be allowed to blind us to the reality of anti-Semitism; it is a sad fact that there are Jew-haters in every strata of Western society, and by haters I mean HATERS. Some people (including those who ought to know better) hate them with a depth and intensity which belies rational thought - I know, I've met them! But Jews in particular should realise that though crying wolf may bring results in the short term, in the longer term it may lead to their being ignored or even ridiculed. The one time they genuinely cry wolf, society may not listen. Findley's book (among other things) demonstrates that the plutocracy has already grown weary of their protestations, it may not be very much longer before the rest of society follows.

(1) Captain Alfred Dreyfus (1859-1935) was indicted for high treason and convicted by a military court in December 1894. The principal evidence against him was a memorandum said to be in his handwriting, but the case against him was obviously rigged. Campaigners won a second trial for Dreyfus in 1899 when he was again convicted. He was finally exonerated only in 1906.

Chesterton was a pre-war fascist and a virulent anti-Semite who later moderated his views, probably when he realised that a certain type of Gentile also finds subversive activity attractive.

(5) Anti-Semites today make much of the Jewish origins of this quack economist and "philosopher". The "Jewishness" of Marx is seen to be fundamental to the supposedly all-pervasive international Jewish conspiracy. However, Marx was Jewish only by birth, and it is well-documented that his views of the Jewish religion and of Jewish culture generally were not that far removed from those of Hitler. Marx was also an ardent supporter of slavery. His views on the Jewish question and race generally have been documented by a number of books, for example, Nathaniel Weyl's Karl Marx, Racist.

One scholar has written of him: "When [the First World War] began, his cause was hardly known to the principal statesmen of the victors. It had many enemies, and some of the most formidable were among the most highly placed of his own people."

(10) The Balfour Declaration has been described as the most remarkable proclamation ever issued by any government anywhere at any time. One nation promised to the second the country of a third which was at that time ruled by a fourth.

(11) Anti-Semites often make much of this, claiming that the "International Jews" dragged America into the war. However, the Americans did not come into the war until 1917, and so bloody was the "Great War" that one million Frenchmen had been lost by the end of 1915 alone.

It is indeed true that the international banking houses - many of them Jewish - made a great deal of money out of the war, as out of all wars, but Gentile bankers were involved in the financing of the war too, in particular the House of Morgan, which was anxious to drag in the United States because it had underwritten vast loans to the British government. Neither should it be forgotten that Jews, ordinary working men, fought on both sides of the First World War. They too were victims of Zionist mendacity.

(12) Jewish historian and Zionist apologist Robert Wistrich is one "expert" who endorses this piffle. Writing in the introduction to Anti-Zionism and Antisemitism in the Contemporary World, * page 4, he says this is "[a] mode of dehumanising Zionism as a form of demonic neo-Nazism...[by creating t]he image of an inhuman, repulsive, treacherous and ruthless movement animated by an evil essence and a remorseless drive for power."

Which, we must admit, is a pretty accurate description of Zionist ideology.

(13) Though the Zionists and their dupes in the media, politics and academia scream that Holocaust Revisionism is "Nazi", the slightest impartial examination of this supposedly so controversial field soon convinces one otherwise. Burg, who died shortly after the Zundel trial, was one of the pioneers of Holocaust Revisionism, long before the anti-Semite David Irving entered the arena by endorsing The Leuchter Report. Burg published his first book on Holocaust Revisionism, Schuld und Schicksal (Debt and Destiny), in 1962. He was subsequently beaten up by Zionist thugs while visiting his wife's grave. In his recently published book Israel and the New World Order, author Andrew Hurley reveals that the Lehi terror gang sought an alliance with the Nazis against the British at the end of 1941. * It should be noted that this was at a time when the Nazis were allegedly committing atrocities against the Jews of Europe and when the British were fighting the Nazis, supposedly to make the world safe for democracy and for Jews to live in. Nor was this an isolated instance. The Lehi sent the Nazis a memo and the Revisionist Press praised Hitler. The leader of the Lehi at this time was the thug Yitzhak Shamir, who, like his fellow mass murderer Menachem Begin, went on to become Prime Minister of Israel.

(17) Notwithstanding the well-documented fact that Hitler never wanted war with Britain in the first place and did everything in his power to sue for peace. So too did members of the British Cabinet, but Churchill would have none of it, partly because he was taking backhanders from both the Zionists and the Czechs, and partly because he was hell-bent on destroying Nazism, whatever the cost to the Germans, Jewry, or to his own people.

(19) President Sadat was later assassinated by Islamic extremists. Begin died a natural death in 1992, and, incredibly, was mourned as a national hero. This is the depths to which Zionism sinks, that it makes heroes out of the murderers of women and children.

(20) In reprisal for Deir Yassin, the Arabs massacred 79 medical personnel. An eye for an eye leaves us all blind.

(21) The reality was that Palestine was the last place any of them wanted to go. Most looked towards the United States as the land of opportunity, but not only did the Americans not want them, neither did the Zionists want them to go to America. This is still the situation now, Israel's most fanatical supporters and apologists are American Zionist Jews. There is a saying that a Zionist is a Jew who gives money to a second Jew to send a third Jew to Israel.

(22) Page 222, Jews and Money: The Myths and the Reality, by Gerald Krefetz, published by Ticknor & Fields, New Haven and New York, (1982).

(23) It is a moot point why they should even care. An American Jew should owe his first allegiance to America; a British Jew to Britain...Zionism is, in the fullest sense of the word, treason.

(24) One Palestinian has written, "...what is the difference between this and Hitler? You say you do not want Hitler and you do not want Nazism, so why are you murdering now?" * He is right in sentiment, if not in fact; there has never been any proof that Hitler ordered the extermination of the Jews; the Final Solution was merely their deportation.

One of the best sources of information on Zionist mendacity and atrocities is The Zionist Connection,  by the anti-Zionist Jew Alfred Lilienthal, who documents their atrocities in considerable depth. For example, on page 185 he reveals that in September 1977, the Swiss League for Human Rights confirmed the pattern of human rights abuses which were revealed by a Sunday Times "Insight" team earlier that year.

(25) Author's interview with Hans Eysenck. This also explains why many blacks find it difficult to compete in white society and are "disproportionately" involved in crime.

(26) For documentation on the reality of Jewish control of Hollywood, see The Jewish Image in American Film, by (the presumably Jewish author) Lester D. Friedman, and Neal Gabler's An Empire of their Own: How the Jews Invented Hollywood. Both books are published by respectable, mainstream publishers and can in no way be construed as anti-Semitic except by the sick, diseased minds of the Anti-Defamation League, the Zionist "thought police" and their fellow travellers.

Although anti-Semites have made enormous capital out of the Jewishness of Hollywood and the wailing and gnashing of teeth which accompanies any mention of these inconvenient facts, it is probably true that in the main the Jews of Hollywood were patriotic Americans. Unfortunately though, Hollywood became a hotbed of communist subversion in the thirties, and its ethnic make-up may well have contributed to dragging the United States into the Second World War, although in the main, Churchill, Roosevelt and their paymasters were responsible for that act of calculated madness.

There is also some evidence that Hollywood media moguls went on to manufacture "evidence" of Nazi atrocities for the Nuremberg show trials after the war - the writer Bud Schulberg for example.

(27) In a free market the power of Jewish (or any other) businesses is a reflection not of their own hegemony but of consumer sovereignty.

(28) Although most of these Zionist lobbying organisations represent themselves as "Jewish", eg the Board of Deputies of "British" Jews, it should be clearly understood that in the first instance they are Zionist, and are therefore acting as the unregistered agents of a foreign power. In the thirties and forties, many "Jewish" organisations were communist fronts. The communists thoroughly infiltrated the Jewish community and wilfully perpetuated the myth that communism is Jewish.

(29) Zionists have consistently and irresponsibly supported massive immigration of unassimilable aliens into the Western world, ruthlessly attacking all opponents of such immigration as racist, fascist or even Nazi. Many of these immigrants have now organised powerful lobbies of their own, and, ironically, most of these are violently opposed to Zionist Imperialism, particularly the Islamic ones.

(30) The oppressors of the Palestinian people and the murderers of their children actually refer to Arafat as a terrorist. Talk about chutzpah.

(31) The Lobby, page 189, (op cit).

(32) One such politician who was ousted by the Zionist Lobby was long-serving US Congressman Paul Findley, who subsequently wrote a book about the Zionists' dirty tricks. It was called, appropriately enough, They Dare To Speak Out.

(33) In German Reparations and the Jewish World, * Ronald Zweig states that from 1953 to 54, "the Federal Republic budget allocated the equivalent of $73,800,000 for reparations payments to Israel." That was the first year of the reparations agreement; some of this was for the resettlement of the victims of Nazism, but far more enormous sums have been paid to the Jewish state since.

(34) The figure of six million has been the subject of increasingly heated debate in recent years, although it will not be discussed here. In any case, the Nazi persecution of the Jews (which the German Zionist movement condoned) is not seriously open to question. The real issue though, however many Jews the Nazi regime murdered, is how is it that "compensation" should be paid by future generations of Germans to citizens of a state which did not even exist at the time the alleged murders took place?

(35) Ben-Gurion, the first Prime Minister of Israel, once said "...every religious Jew has daily violated the precepts of Judaism by remaining in the diaspora." and "Whoever dwells outside the land of Israel is considered to have no god." * Ben-Gurion was not a religious Jew but was a Jew by accident of birth only. By what divine right do Zionists, people of the cosh, tell Jews, People of the Book, how to live a good Jewish life? Talk about chutzpah.

* Quoted from page 76 of Behind The Balfour Declaration, by Robert John, (op cit).

(36) It should also be borne in mind that just as not all Jews are Zionists, neither are all Zionists Jews. Many non-Jews from fundamentalist Christians to pragmatic Western politicians have openly espoused Zionism, for a variety of reasons.

(37) B'nai B'rith is an older, fraternal organisation.

(38) To put such "anti-Semitism" in perspective, it should be recalled that this was an era in which the "lower classes" had to know their place, and in which women, blacks and many others were regarded as second class citizens or worse. Jews were often the butt of thoughtless, stereotypical remarks (as indeed were many others) and were generally not admitted to "polite society", even though the United States has always been a far less class conscious society than Britain.

When this is taken into consideration it will be seen that by and large the Jews did not suffer anything like as much as some of them would nowadays have us believe. Although there may have been occasional anti-Jewish violence in Western nations there were certainly no pogroms as there were in Poland and Russia. It was these which caused the great Jewish emigration of the late 19th and early 20th Century, although even these persecutions were not always as bad as we are generally led to believe nowadays. Persecution and suffering have in some sense become part of the Jewish psyche.

(44) Arnold Forster reported this is a 1975 article on the ADL in the Wiener Library Bulletin. *

"In April 1973 Senator J. William Fulbright, then chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, declared on CBS television that 'Israel controls the Senate'."

Six months later, the day after the Yom Kippur attack on Israel, an interviewer suggested that this was a 'fairly serious charge'. Fulbright replied, 'The charge is a fact of life'. Forster described this as an attack!

* The Anti-Defamation League, by Arnold Forster, page 55, Wiener Library Bulletin, 1975 Vol. XXVIII new series Nos. 33/34. The Wiener Library, founded by Alexander Wiener, monitors anti-Semitic and related material. It is based in London and Israel. Unlike other "Jewish anti-fascist" organisations it does not campaign to destroy civil liberties.

(45) Writing as long ago as 1965, George Thayer described the machinations of this perfidious organisation thus: "[The Board of Deputies] backed the passage of the Public Order Act of 1936 that subsequently curbed Fascist activities in Britain; and it is, among other things, currently helping to promote the passage of a bill to make incitement to racial hatred a criminal offence."

It is this subversion of democracy, in particular the wilful destruction of individual rights on the specious grounds of promoting racial "tolerance", which more than anything else has been responsible for the proliferation of anti-Jewish conspiracy theories and the incitement of hatred against Jews in general. Ordinary Jews, particularly pious, religious Jews - like the goyim - simply want to be left alone. The Board of Deputies and the rest of the self-styled Jewish establishment has done, and continues to do, a great disservice to the people they claim to represent and to defend.

(47) This must not be interpreted as condemnation of Kahane, only of his openness. An Amnesty International report (Embargoed for 27 May 1993) revealed that since the expulsion of more than 400 men by the Israelis the previous December (itself a criminal act), over a hundred Palestinians had been shot dead by Israeli forces, more than thirty of them under seventeen years of age! For the murderers and thugs in the Israeli government to condemn Kahane for speaking his mind and then to sanction the murders of schoolchildren is the most bare-faced hypocrisy.

(53) Kahane, page 42, (op cit).

(54) Nowadays, anti-Semitism is more of an industry than a religious concept. Many printers - especially in Sussex - earn a considerable percentage of their income by printing for anti-Semitic groups; many academics make a lucrative living out of "researching" and writing books about anti-Semitism; and many politicians - especially in the United States - receive considerable sums from Zionist organisations for condemning anti-Semitism.

(70) And still it goes on. In May 1993, the human rights organisation Amnesty International issued a press release which revealed that since the December 1992 illegal expulsion of 415 men into the desert, more than 100 Palestinians have been shot and killed by the Israeli security forces, thirty of them under the age of seventeen. The dead include: Rana Abu Tuyur, an 11 year old girl, was murdered on her way to buy milk on 19th December 1992; Maher al-Maja'idah, aged 8, was murdered on 20th March 1993; Ra'edah al-Qarra, a 13 year old girl, was murdered on 8th April 1993.
