

FALSE ALLEGATION OF RAPE

At Parramatta Quarter Sessions yesterday, Lillian Esther Halyday, 19, carnival assistant, pleaded guilty to a charge of creating a public mischief by falsely alleging that three men had raped her.

Judge Shortland bound over Halyday on a £50 bond to be of good behaviour for three years.

He ordered her to pay the Police Department £40/8/8 investigation costs, at the rate of £2 a month.
