

1975

1976

1980

1981

300 fighting issues of Searchlight

Racism and fascism will always meet opposition. Searchlight exists to give expert and informed insights into the enemies of democracy and serve the anti-racist and anti-fascist movement. Highlighted here are some Searchlight successes over the years.

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 1975 | Exposing the links between crime and the National Front leadership |
| 1976 | Investigating links between the Security Services and the far right |
| 1977 | Racist bomb plots exposed |
| 1978 | Column 88 investigated |
| 1979 | Internal feuds inside Britain's far right revealed |
| 1980 | British Movement arms plot. Links to Bologna bombers |
| 1981 | British Movement activists jailed for arms stockpiling |
| 1982 | Tracking Italian terrorists exiled in Britain. A new look at David Irving |
| 1983 | Notting Hill Carnival bomb plot |
| 1984 | Searchlight mole Ray Hill goes public on terror and arms deals |
| 1985 | Who was behind the death of anti-nuclear campaigner Hilda Murrell? |
| 1986 | Colin Jordan's infiltration and terror blueprint |
| 1987 | Searchlight campaign exposes Nazi war criminals |
| 1988 | Bomber Tony Lecomber welcomed into British National Party |
| 1989 | National Front visit Tripoli |
| 1990 | Searchlight mole penetrates the British Ku Klux Klan |
| 1991 | Searchlight reveals Column 88 as British section of Gladio |
| 1992 | SS network exposed |
| 1993 | Fortress Europe and the plight of refugees in Britain |
| 1994 | East London terror campaign against Asian community |
| 1995 | Combat 18 boss Charlie Sargent revealed as State asset |
| 1996 | Campaign against nazi music to "Shut Down the Peddlers of Hate" |
| 1997 | British National Party plot to take over UKIP |
| 1998 | Searchlight evidence to the Lawrence Inquiry |
| 1999 | Nazis in the armed forces |
| 2000 | Irving cornered after 38 years |