

International False Rape Timeline - live hangout (20) - False Crime and Punishment

I should state at the outset that there several glitches in the recording, something that was beyond my control. I don't think I've ever had this problem with YouTube before.

I covered a lot of ground in this hangout, including a lot of contemporary stuff unrelated to the main subject, ie what should be the punishment for false rape allegations.

This was the third anniversary of the Timeline.

Jack Rebolledo made an appearance; his ex-wife is currently facing trial for staging an outrageous false allegation against him.

I discussed the purging of so-called right wing and conservative channels on YouTube, and shadow banning, which has definitely been affecting me.

Up to the minute news was a report that the actor Cuba Gooding Junior had been accused of groping a woman in a New York club. CCTV tells a different story. Why am I not surprised?

The actress Mira Sorvino - I'd never heard of her - made multiple dubious claims about how she has been abused, sexually and otherwise.

The Central Park Five case is currently back in the news - an unambiguous and quite terrible incident.

The sexual grievance industry in the UK is unhappy with the fall in prosecutions for rape. And with the policy of examining the mobile phones of complainants. Ask Liam Allan if that's such a bad idea!

A stupid petition was started recently because Carl Benjamin (who vlogs on YouTube as Sargon of Akkad) made a bad joke about the odious Jess Phillips.

I covered the nonsense of therapy and counselling for rape victims - real and sham.

The outrageous Sally Challen case - this bitch has now effectively gotten away with murder. I summarise the true facts of this case and so-called dependent personality disorder.

There is a glitch at the point where I discuss the tragic case of Noa Pothoven. I pointed out here that mental illness, so-called, does not exist.

Regarding the punishment of false rape accusers, I discussed the following cases:

Alison Welfare, Anna Costin, Biurny Peguero, Cathleen Crowell, Chaavarne Dick, Hannah Farnworth, Jemma Beale, Louise Nicholas, Rhiannon Brooker, Sheena Boll.

Airheads like Louise Nicholas believe false accusers warrant no punishment at all, while at the other extreme, some MRAs believe they should receive the same punishment the falsely accused would have received on conviction. I stressed every case must be judged on its own merits or lack thereof.

Serial false rape accuser Anna Costin is also known as Annelise Costin and Anna Carey. She came up in front of and unduly sympathetic judge whose pathetic sentence was rectified by the Attorney General.

When Denzil Howell was falsely accused of rape, he administered summary justice to his accuser.

I ended with a discussion of realistic punishments that should be meted out to genuine rapists. I also touched briefly on historical cases.
