

International False Rape Timeline – live hangout (67) –

The Death Of #MeToo

This hangout was pre-recorded. It covers especially the successful defamation action brought by Johnny Depp against his ex-wife Amber Heard. Heard is being touted as the woman who killed #MeToo. We can only hope.

I cover vert briefly the origins of #MeToo and Time’s Up. And the result in practice of #MeToo.

I cover the reaction to the trial outcome, including by demented feminist Moira Donegan (the woman responsible for the Shitty Media Men List).

I play some video from a documentary showing a poor bloke named Paul Jenner who was beaten to death by his “girlfriend”.

I mention the case of Emma-Jayne Magson, not a false rape case but a genuine murder, one I have covered in depth over the past couple of years.

I mention the Prince Andrew case and the ongoing researches of Lady Victoria Hervey into his false accuser, the odious Virginia Giuffre.

I cover Bill Cosby and related #MeToo cases including Harvey Weinstein.

I mention inter alia Kevin Spacey, who has been accused of homosexual offences, and the attempts by feminist academics to discredit false memory syndrome.
