

International False Rape Timeline – hangout (69) –

Potpourri

This pre-recorded hangout really is a potpourri. It covers the following in more or less this order:

the ludicrous historical case against Bob Dylan, now dismissed.

Judge Roy Moore – who has now won a massive defamation case; I threw in the name Gloria Allred, who should have been disbarred for her involvement in this sordid affair.

I played a short clip of Paul Gambaccini spilling the beans on the OPERATION YEWTREE witch-hunt. He put up the name Keir Starmer, which did surprise me.

Allegations against the American celebrity Ryan Seacrest, which are not recent.

Several cases from India.

Prince Andrew – again – an innocent man whose false accuser has been given a free pass.

A daffy woman who was given space by the GUARDIAN to tell how she was raped. As if.

Amber Heard – the woman female lawyers don't believe.

An attack on a girl in Trowbridge, apparently with intent to rape. The guy bit off more than he could chew.

A horrible rape/murder from New Jersey.

Murderer and serial rapist Ronald Evans.

Another scheme to increase rape convictions (at the expense of justice).

A rape acquittal – alcohol!

Allegations against South Korean performers.

A false allegation against singer-songwriter Ricky Martin.

The Ronaldo case yet again.

The Benjamin Mendy case – currently on trial.

The case of two French police officers convicted then cleared on appeal of raping a Canadian woman.

A ludicrous case of a woman suing the police for releasing her name. She claimed to have been gang raped.

An article by Emma Priest – apparently an intelligent one.

Some ludicrous cases from freedom of information files.

The acquittal of Vassil Kokali for the rape of Audrey Cox – another case due to alcohol.

The case of Gretchen van Winkle.

The garbage espoused by Charlotte Proudman.
