

International False Rape Timeline

– hangout – (108) A Mixed Bag

This hangout begins with an explanation of a deletion from the False Rape Timeline. The second case alluded to was not a deletion but a redaction. Here is the link:

From here I moved on to Harvey Weinstein (who was featured in the last hangout) and played a clip of Clarence Thomas from 1991 (which is tangentially connected). I mention the Kavanaugh hearing which was far, far worse.

This was followed with a lengthy discussion of the latest allegations against the magician David Copperfield and one old one.

I mention briefly another magician, David Blaine followed by a lengthier mention of Kevin Spacey (homosexual allegations).

Then I discuss the extraordinary case of Jack Mount augmented with some personal anecdotes.

I discuss Ashley Biden's diary very briefly – not for the first time. This is followed by mention of a female schoolteacher who'd been giving a couple of her enthusiastic pupils extra homework!

I finish with a new development in England – so-called specialist training for police who investigate rape - and mention of an overseas cricketer whose rape conviction was quashed by an appellate court.
