

International False Rape Timeline

— hangout — (112) Recent Controversies

This pre-recorded hangout begins with some explanation about the quality of the video – a low quality camera coupled with a program that reduces background noise – and the reason it is being uploaded here (Substack) rather than my dedicated false rape timeline channel on YouTube.

Herein, I discuss the odious Menéndez brothers, who are back in the news with more lies. I go on to discuss the allegations against the late Mohamed Al-Fayed and include a short clip of Lady Colin Campbell.

After that I cover the Sean Combs case, then Bruce Lehrmann. I said Lehrmann had been tried for rape and acquitted but the Crown decided not to seek a retrial. Of course, if he had been acquitted, there would be no retrial! The trial was actually abandoned after the jury had deliberated for four days; there was no retrial due to the mental health of his accuser (who is a head case).

After that I cover the allegations against Garth Brooks by Jane Roe – not her real name! – and a couple of similar cases in the United States in which sportsmen have been falsely accused by chancers.

I finish with a further mention of the Menéndez brothers and the so-called new evidence in this case.
