PREFACE

This autobiographical effort is in two parts: the first deals with my experiences until I retired from the Veterinary Profession in 1928; the second, with events in the political pioneering career that I carried on after that year by opposing the secret Jewish Power. It was not until 1946 that I thought seriously of publishing it. On reading one of the numerous "smearing" articles about myself in the political columns of newspapers, I learned that my career, "told in full, would read like an Oppenheim thriller", and then it struck me that although there was much doubt as to whether it was as bad as all that, there were possibly some rather unusual events in it which might interest the small proportion of the public that reads.

For political reasons I have not mentioned in this book the names of most of my friends; and I hope my readers will not, therefore, attribute the fact that the word "I" too frequently occurs in the text to any want of modesty on my part; a man who has been in prison, with or without trial, for well over four years isn't likely to overestimate his own importance! I think that there will be many lovers of animals, veterinary surgeons amongst them, who may find something new to them, particularly in the first ten Chapters; whilst anyone concerned with political realism can learn a little from the experiences related in the second part of the book, since those experiences are rather unique. This, however, is neither a veterinary textbook nor a political treatise; it is simply an account of some of the things that happened to Your Humble Servant,

OUT OF STEP

I was stimulated by this victory to complete this Autobiography which was begun many years ago! I am 72 years' old now, and perhaps my political adventures may not yet be finished!

Let me close this record, however, on an animal note. After the loss of my St. Bernard, and after my first anti-Jewish conviction in 1936, I decided not to acquire another dog. I foresaw that the Jews would try and get me back into prison, in which case I felt that to have a dog at home would add to my own distress in prison, and would not be fair on the dog. But, in 1935, we adopted a ginger male kitten, and Nandy II has been a constant source of entertainment to us for over 15 years; it was through him that I became aware of a sense which some animals (of species not too far removed from the feral) possess which gives them some sort of radar-like warning, presumably vague, of coming calamity. It may be that some humans of primitive type may share this sense with them. As has been narrated, I was arrested in 1940 under 18B and taken away for over three years; and in 1947, I was imprisoned for eight months. During the two days before these events, Nandy would hardly leave me; he followed me about all over the house and garden, and it was so marked that on the second of these occasions, my wife became convinced that I was in for a stiff term of imprisonment. Nandy was right both times! It is all the more interesting to record that in 1950, when the Government tried to silence me by a criminal libel charge, Nandy took no special notice of me when I departed for the Old Bailey; and this actually gave us some encouragement! And he was right again, because I was acquitted; he was about the only one who expected that result!

As I write, he sleeps soundly, beside me; in his 16th year, not just a Cat, but One of Us!

Appendix

LEESE FOR PEACE!

WHY ARE WE AT WAR?

The Foreign Secretary says:—

"We are fighting in defence of Freedom."

"We are fighting for peace."

"We are meeting a challenge to our own security. . . ."

". . . . and that of others."

"We are defending the rights of all nations to live their own lives."

"We are fighting against the substitution of brute force for Law as the arbiter between nations. . . ."

". . . . against the violation of the sanctity of treaties and disregard for the pledged word."

But I Say:—

The Government itself is trying to legalise imprisonment of anti-Jewish workers without trial.

Then why declare war?

Our own security was not challenged by Germany.

Which is no business of ours, we being neither God nor the World's Elected Policemen.

Then why are all nations not fighting by our side?

Then why pick out Germany? Why not fight Russia for stealing East Poland and Sinkiang; Italy for taking Albania and Abyssinia; Japan for invading China; or the United States for stealing Panama from Columbia?

Who has kept the Versailles Treaty? Did not the Freemason Sir H. MacMahon promise Palestine in our name to the Arabs in 1915?

THERE IS REALLY ONLY ONE WAR AIM!

We are Fighting the Jews' Chief Enemy for the Jews!

Poland and Czechoslovakia are not British Interests
but Jewish Interests.

I have fought for 11½ years to try and prevent Jewish domination over British policy. This had to be done almost without money help. If you want peace, I am ready to fight on for it, but you must now furnish me with the means to do it.

LEESE FOR PEACE!
