

Part of the affidavit of the prosecution's chief witness, James Conley. For the first time in the South, a Negro's affidavit brought a white man to trial on a capital charge.

The reason I have not told this before is I thought Mr. Frank would get out and help me out, but it seems that he is not going to get out and I have decided to tell the whole truth about this matter.

While I was looking at the money in my hand Mr. Frank said let me have that and I will make it all right with you Monday live and nothing happens & he took the money back & I asked him if that was the way he done and he said he would give it back Monday

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 29 day of May, 1913.
