

PRAYER OF VICTORY

In the name of Jesus and in His wounds there is victory!

Jesus Christ has trod upon the head of the serpent and also conquered its power over me. The victory has been won.

Hallelujah!

In the name of Jesus and in His wounds there is victory!

Jesus Christ has abolished the power of death — in my heart and life as well. He has overcome death.

Hallelujah!

In the name of Jesus and in His wounds there is victory!

The Lamb, the Lion of Judah, has overcome Satan's power and the power of sin — in my life. Jesus is Victor!

Hallelujah!

In the name of Jesus and in His wounds there is victory!

Jesus has put all His enemies under His feet — in my life as well. The enemy has been overcome. Jesus is Victor!

Hallelujah!

In the name of Jesus and in His wounds there is victory!

Jesus has come to destroy the works of the devil. They are destroyed — in my life also, for Jesus is Victor!

Hallelujah!

In the name of Jesus and in His wounds there is victory!

Jesus has redeemed me from every power of sin, for He says, "If the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed." This truth avails for me. I have been redeemed from my sinful bonds. Jesus is Victor!

Hallelujah!

In the name of Jesus and in His wounds there is victory!

I know that my Redeemer lives. He redeems me and remoulds me into a new creature. Jesus sets me free.

Hallelujah!

In the name of Jesus and in His wounds there is victory!

Jesus has disarmed His enemies and made a public show of them. Jesus is Victor over every power of the enemy — also whenever he tries to oppress me.

Hallelujah!

In the name of Jesus and in His wounds there is victory!

Jesus has the keys of death and Hades. No longer can the enemy harm me, rage as he will. I am redeemed. Jesus is Victor!

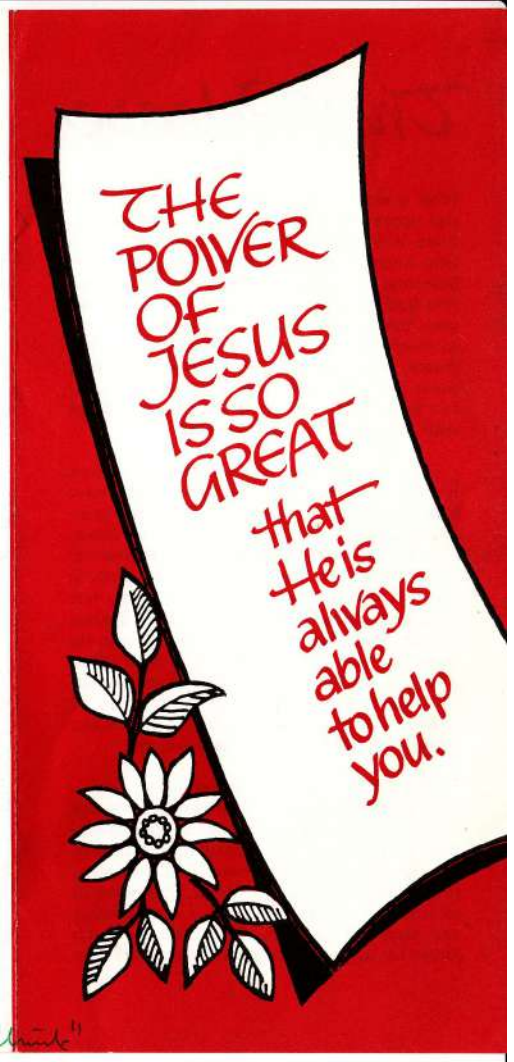

Hallelujah!

True Release

What a wonderful ray of hope! In these dark and oppressive times, filled with fear and sin, there is Someone who knows you, Someone who knows everything that is in your heart, Someone who knows what is depressing you. It is God, your heavenly Father. He has created you. You are His child and this is why He cares so much for you. His heart feels for you. That means, when you are sad, He suffers with you; when you are happy, He is happy with you; but when you have sinned, His heart is filled with grief, for sin is your downfall.

This is what the heart of God is like. God is your heavenly Father, who knows you, who loves you, who understands you better than any person on earth. And love, love alone, is in the heart of your Saviour and Redeemer, Jesus Christ. He loves you so much that He gave His life for you, so that you would not need to be unhappy and perish in your distress and sin. He is holding out His hand to you. He wants to pull you out when you have fallen into the depths of fear, distress or despair. He wants to set your feet on firm ground again, where you will see the purpose of your life and where your heart will find peace and joy.

Yes, Jesus takes sin so seriously. This is why He suffered bitter death for you on the cross. But now He has the power to save you from that which is the greatest root of trouble in your life and which makes you miserable: sin. He has power to blot it out. Sin makes us so unhappy, because it leads us into bondage and separates us from God. Then He is no longer for us, and so we are alone and forsaken.

It does not help us at all to go to a medium or someone else who would call upon the spirits to come to our aid. These are spirits from the world of darkness, and this is why they cannot help us. And even if, at first, they should give you relief from sickness or another affliction, they will still lead you into misery. For whatever comes from the kingdom of darkness is connected with Satan, who wants to destroy our happiness and make us miserable. And indeed he can do so. Everyone who has had dealings with such spirits has found this out.

So do not trust this supposed offer of help. Do not let yourself be deceived when mediums or witches sprinkle their formulas with Christian-sounding phrases, for the incantations they mumble conjure up the evil spirits. Then you will no longer have peace in your heart. You will become even more sick in your soul and perhaps even physically ill. For by getting involved with these spirits (Ephesians 6:12), you come under their power and the power of their ruler — Satan. He has no love for people; he hates them. He is the great deceiver. He pretends to bring help; but when we fall into his hands, he torments us and makes us miserable.

So if you have had anything to do with the occult, seek release! Jesus is waiting for you. A sign that evil spirits are at work is that you can sense their attacks all the more when you praise the power of the blood of Jesus, the Lamb of God, which is something they cannot bear to hear. Yet praising His blood is precisely the way to be released from these evil powers. So take no heed of the resistance within you and do not shrink from the battle that it will cost you. Keep praising the power of the blood of the Lamb — and you will become free.

Call upon Jesus, the crucified Lord, the Lamb of God, who is stronger than Satan and every power of darkness, and pray every day:

The curse of Satan is undone,
For Jesus on the cross has won.
In Jesus' blood is power to free;
The battle's won — Satan must flee.
Jesus' victory is mine!

Christ Jesus has the greatest might;
He vanquished Satan in the fight.
The spell and curse have lost their power;
I'm free, mine is the victory now.
Jesus' blood has set me free.

Say these verses aloud, and in the presence of a Christian counsellor renounce every bondage to darkness. By praying for release, you will be set free and find happiness. Then you will be able to rejoice:

My bonds and chains are broken;
I am free from Satan's might.
My sin has been forgiven;
I am free — Christ won the fight.
Jesus gave His life to save me;
I am redeemed; He set me free!

Oh, if only I could tell you how wonderful Jesus Christ is! He is a mighty Redeemer, a Deliverer, who can burst asunder all bonds. He is the Victor over all evil powers that seek to depress us. And one day He will come again in glory and reveal His victory to the whole world. He is Love eternal, and He loves you tenderly. He has redeemed you. He has called you by your name and He wants to help you experience His redemption.

So rejoice. There is a solution to your problems. You can receive help. For Jesus is alive and Jesus is victorious!
