

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

with Lewis. (Cheers and interruption.) the learned professor that in passing the bill, he had not only been
 and he protested against it. (Cheers)
 the bill, he had not only been
 by Acts of Parliament, which was they were doing in this country.
 women of this country he urged the
 the bill, he had not only been righteous measure. (Cheers and confusion) concluded by proposing a vote of thanks Mr. B. BUTLER did not look at the
 the bill, he had not only been
 men and women as set forth in Testament—the most democratic book the rights of the female population.
 able to man as well as women. (Hear, was equal rights for both, and when it was time for women to look out for themselves.

The Rev. C. J. GORDON rose to second the thanks to Promoter Newman, with the rights of women, and he held that moral grounds, and also because they the laws of liberty. As a minister of [illegible]

of the Anti-
His re-
array and
whereupon
my that
but that
out. As
may do as
a government had
me and not
my books
her had.
His
medicine
the communion of
parliament
of not had
ly ordered
constitu-

and said:
addressed to
ing inter-
demon. I
as I was in
can totally
her beauty
What I ob-
that were
in studies

He agreed
such acts
as, "no.")—
Sin would encourage
every thing
of the
like of the
to bend
on an un-
don.) He
Professor
ter from a
parted the
the New
the world
ere was to
to protect
it is applic-
hear.) He
on ceased to
sa, then he
their own
the vote of
to view he
the infidel
women had
so he acts on
opposed to
the gospel,
poor them.

city six was
in follow-
al creation,
Religious
agencies, but
the least
than one,"
one of the
re admitted
still greater
igion from
ght to take
e, because it
were apt to
he influence
to repeat the
hundreds of deliberately
nts and feel-
ir expressed
by bringing
them in
to be ap-
et all about
y man who
sa. If 449
he would
nothing like
were enough
as practical,
to be carried
which was