

WITH THE ELECTION IN FULL SWING, MAKE SURE THAT YOU DON'T INADVERTENTLY PEDDLE THE LIBELS OF GERRY GABLE, SEARCHLIGHT'S LIAR-IN-CHIEF.

TWENTY-TWO THINGS YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT GERRY GABLE. WELL, ALMOST.

1. Mr Gable is a notorious liar.
2. Mr Gable has consistently claimed that his Searchlight organisation has been bringing 'fascists' to book since 1962. In fact, the original Searchlight Association was only founded in 1965 and published a mere four issues of a broadsheet; there is no evidence that Gable had anything to do with it.
3. Most of Searchlight's activity consists of harassing 'fascists' who are engaged in purely legal activity. Holding public & private meetings and contesting elections for example.
4. Increasingly Mr Gable's organisation has targeted Black and Muslim organisations. Mr Gable particularly hates Black Muslims because, like many of his kind, he finds the thoughts of Black racial integrity and self-reliance deeply offensive.
5. In 1987, Mr Gable boasted to the Jewish Chronicle that one of his sons was serving in the Israeli army. The following month saw the start of the Intifada; it is not known how many Palestinian children Mr Gable's son murdered.
6. Randy Gerry has been married three times; all three of his wives have been Jewish or of Jewish origin. Not only does Gerry practice racial purity but he doesn't employ Blacks either and recently turned down two job applications from Blacks simply because of their race. You dirty hypocrite, Gerry.
7. Gable's antipathy towards blacks and Asians is such that black and Asian groups such as the Newham Monitoring Project (renamed Unity) will not work with him. Indeed, at an anti-racist meeting held in an Ilford synagogue at which both Gable and Nazi 'mole' Ray Hill spoke, several members of the NMP were beaten up at the door by Gable's bouncers.
8. In 1986, Mr Gable's lies cost a young junior civil servant named Brian Gentleman his job when he was fitted up as a Czech spy.
9. In the same year, Mr Gable cost the BBC a quarter of a million pounds and forced the resignation of the BBC's director general in the notorious Panorama libel case, which was based entirely on his 'researches', contrary to his later claims.
10. In the same year his lies cost Private Eye magazine a small fortune when it was sued by a Conservative MP and two others. Mr Gable had accused them of plotting to murder him in Searchlight but wasn't stupid enough to name them; he left that to Private Eye.
11. In recent years Mr Gable's libels have cost a number of radical bookshops a great deal of money, including Housmans who are no longer stocking his magazine.
12. To date, Mr Gable has three outstanding libel actions against him. He hasn't a hope of defending his libels and he has not paid out any libel damages, nor are there any signs that he will. His health has been deteriorating in direct proportion to the advance of the trial date and he will shortly be taking a holiday in Israel — permanently. He has already transferred the deeds on his house to a third party and has been quietly winding down his business activities in preparation for the forthcoming disaster. Does his wife know, we wonder?
13. Mr Gable's Jewish mistress, Ruth Levin, recently ran an appeal for funds in Searchlight magazine, ostensibly to fund an anti-racist campaign but in reality to pay Gerry's legal bills and to pay off the mortgage on their love nest in Hebron.

14. Mr Gable is thought to be a secret state 'asset'. In truth he is, but at heart he is nothing more than a dirty little Social Security grass and money grabber. Political ideals have no place in Gable's world. He recently filed an affidavit in the High Court in which he not only admitted this but offered to give evidence against a DSS claimant in criminal proceedings. Anarchist group Black Flag and other socialists such as Anti-Fascist Action refuse to work with Gable because of his practice of working a two-way street. That is, besides his high profile intelligence work against the 'right', his less publicised selling information on 'the left' to special branch and MI5. Even the mainstream are not safe. At the Referendum Party's jamboree last year, the invitation list data base was sent by Sir James Goldsmith to Gable to check for 'fascists'. Gable made his money not once but twice by selling the list on to an unnamed third party.

15. Mr Gable was recently represented by the firm Bindman & Partners in his libel defence, but when they found out where the money for this defence was coming from — the Searchlight Educational Trust — they dropped him like a hot brick.

16. Naughty Gerry has also used money from the Searchlight Educational Trust to pay Nazi 'moles', in other words agent provocateurs like Tim Hepple who seriously injured socialists peacefully leafleting and left them requiring hospital treatment. Hepple in his book At War Against Society admitted stomping on several innocent people lying on the ground.

17. Over the years, Searchlight magazine has been associated with a convicted arsonist, a self confessed synagogue desecrator, a thug and an alcoholic. Namely, Manny Carpel gaoled for 2½ years in 1981; Ray Hill who made his admission in the News of the World in March 1984; Tim Hepple who gloried in the violence (see 16); and Dave Roberts, Searchlight's first 'mole'.

18. Searchlight reveals its totalitarian views and deep anti-black bias by referring to its political opponents (the BNP) as 'lice' (issue 215, page 12) and calling Black American separatist Louis Farrakhan a worm (issue 158, page 5).

19. In January 1984, Searchlight printed an obituary for a sordid pimp, homosexual paedophile and thug. This creature was Gable's personal friend.

20. Gerry Gable claims Searchlight to be acting in defence of democracy. Yet Gable is on record as being the election agent for communist candidate, in council elections in north London.

21. Gable also claims that he is concerned about 'Nazi criminality'. Give Gerry a ring on 0181-550-1805 and ask him about his own convictions for burglary artifice and going equipped. While you're at it, ask Gable about the narrow squeak he had when he and communist pals stormed and took over the Kensington Library in summer 1991 in which one man was glassed with a lightbulb and another elderly man was kicked nearly to death and all were falsely imprisoned for an hour. Incidentally, the case against Gable collapsed because the chief prosecution witness — another of Gable's 'moles' — deliberately botched his testimony.

22. Libertarian, Alexander Baron has published several pamphlets outlining Gable's dubious activities. Not long after the first pamphlet was published, Baron was assaulted in his own home by masked thugs. This, no doubt, was the most amazing coincidence.

If you do avail yourself of Mr. Gable's 'researches', always check your facts.
