The first of these is the fact that the pogroms were far fewer in number and far less intense than in Europe, where many Jews were used by the ruling class as tax collectors, and some enjoyed such privileged status that they carried out great crimes for themselves as merchants and bankers. The Ruffschulds being the outstanding example.

When "Islamic extremists" call on their fellow Moslems to "kill the Jews" they are not attacking the bearer of a hated Jewish religion, but Zionist Zionism, a fascistic political movement which has secular European origins. Moslems are not stupid, they recognise the difference between the pigs men in black hats and collars who pray three times a day in a synagogue and the jackboots that grub about Palestinian schoolchildren, torture people and desecrate places of worship.

The Muslim writes in its January issue: "We have denounced a Jewish speaker to the following terms: 'You have the gall to wear a kippa and talk about racism! You don't have a monopoly for suffering.' The simple fact is that although many Jews who engage in 'anti-racist' outrages have the best of intentions, some do not. One such 'Jew' is Gerry Gable. Gable's Organisation including the so-called anti-fascist magazine Searchlight, is in the forefront of the 'anti-racist' movement: among other things it endeavours to make fascism illegal, and to suppress all forms of race consciousness amongst white Britons, and Anglo-Saxons everywhere.

Searchlight magazine condones racially motivated violence head and long, and expresses outrage at the occasional murders of blacks and Moslems by right wing extremists in Britain and elsewhere. But a closer look at the Searchlight Organisation reveals that it condones such activity with all the sincerity of a turkey, wishing the onset of Christmas to be a fortnight later than it is. Searchlight magazine, its controller, and one of its heroes, self-styled Nazi hero Roy Hill.

Gerry Gable - Apologist For Zionism

Gerry Gable grew up in the East End of London and boasts that from the age of twelve he robbed shoplifters with the 43 Group. The 43 Group was a group of mostly Jewish-born thugs who attacked the Union Movement of Sir Oswald Mosley, ostensibly because they were fascists but in reality out of a hatred for everything white Anglo-Saxon civilisation stands for. The attacks of the 43 Group were physical, unrelenting and blatantly illegal. Eventually their violence displeased even the Anglo-Jewish Establishment, as also did their alleged use of strong arm tactics for collecting donations from Jewish businessmen.

It is worth noting that although the 43 Group was ostensibly anti-fascist, it supported the fascist organ of racist murderers - and butcher of your fellow Moslems - Moshelam Begim. It claimed to adopt an entirely neutral position towards Zionist terrorism in this Palestine, but in 1953, in the Epilogue to the second edition of its fancy-prone though credible history of the 43 Group, former member, Maurice Beckman boasted that in early 1948 ten members of the Group went to Palestine "to fight in the Israeli war of independence" (sic). In other words, to murder Arabs. (1)

A leading light in the 43 Group, and later the even more violent and exclusively Jewish 62 Group, was a certain Harry Sidney. Sidney was not only a Zionist but a communist, and a homosexual. At the Old Bailey in 1977, Sidney was convicted of living off the earnings of prostitutes; his employer was convicted of importing for an

Introduction

On March 10, 1995, a story in the Jewish Chronicle announced that a meeting of a so-called anti-racist campaign mounted by the National Union of Students had been shouted down by "Islamic protesters". One Moslem is alleged to have shouted at a Jewish speaker "What Holocaust?" Obviously Moslems are far more concerned about the suffering of the Palestinian people today than about the suffering - real and imagined - of European Jews fifty and more years ago. Also speaking at this meeting were representatives from Searchlight, a so-called anti-racist, anti-fascist organisation.

In recent months an organisation which has the effrontery to call itself the Board of Deputies of British Jews has been demanding that so-called Islamic extremists be prosecuted for publishing leaflets which call on Moslems to "kill the Jews"; at least one organisation has also been allegedly calling for the execution of homosexuals. What are the true facts?

The true facts are that Jews lived peacefully in Islamic countries for thousands of years, and although there were occasional, local outbreaks of violence, the pogroms were far fewer in number and far less intense than in Europe, where many Jews were used by the ruling class as tax collectors, and some enjoyed such privileged status that they carved out great fortunes for themselves as merchants and usurers, the Rothschilds being the outstanding example.

When "Islamic extremists" call on their fellow Moslems to "kill the Jews" they are not attacking the benign if banal Jewish religion, but Zionist Imperialism, a fascistic political movement which has secular European origins. Moslems are not stupid, they recognise the difference between the pious men in black hats and caftans who pray three times a day in a synagogue and the jackbooted thugs who shoot Palestinian schoolchildren, torture people and desecrate places of worship.

One of the Moslem hecklers at this aforementioned meeting is said to have denounced a Jewish speaker in the following terms: "You have the gall to come here and talk about racism! You don't have a monopoly for suffering." The simple fact is that although many Jews who engage in "anti-racist" outrages have the best of intentions, some do not. One such "Jew" is Gerry Gable. Gable's organisation including the so-called anti-fascist magazine Searchlight, is in the forefront of the "anti-racist" movement; among other things it campaigns to make fascism illegal, and to suppress all forms of race consciousness amongst white Britons, and Anglo-Saxons everywhere.

Searchlight magazine condemns racially motivated violence loud and long, and expresses outrage at the occasional murders of blacks and Moslems by right wing extremists in Britain and elsewhere. But a closer look at the Searchlight Organisation reveals that it condemns such activity with all the sincerity of a turkey relishing the onset of Christmas, so let's then take a closer look at Searchlight magazine, its controller, and one of its heroes, self-styled Nazi mole Ray Hill.

Gerry Gable - Apologist For Zionism

Gerry Gable grew up in the East End of London and boasts that from the age of twelve he rubbed shoulders with the 43 Group. The 43 Group was a group of mostly Jewish-born thugs who attacked the Union Movement of Sir Oswald Mosley, ostensibly because they were fascists but in reality out of a hatred for everything white Anglo-Saxon civilisation stands for. The attacks of the 43 Group were physical, unremitting, and blatantly illegal. Eventually their violence displeased even the Anglo-Jewish Establishment, as also did their alleged use of strong arm tactics for soliciting donations from Jewish businessmen.

It is worth noting that although the 43 Group was ostensibly anti-fascist, it supported the fascistic Irgun of mass murderer - and butcher of your fellow Moslems - Menachem Begin. It claimed to adopt an entirely neutral position towards Zionist terrorism in then Palestine, but in 1993, in the Epilogue to the second edition of his fantasy-prone though candid history of the 43 Group, former member Morris Beckman boasted that in early 1948 ten members of the Group went to Palestine "to fight in the Israeli war of independence" [sic]. In other words, to murder Arabs. (1)

A leading light in the 43 Group, and later the even more violent and exclusively Jewish 62 Group, was a certain Harry Bidney. Bidney was not only a Zionist but a communist, and a homosexual. At the Old Bailey in 1977, Bidney was convicted of living off the earnings of prostitutes; his employer was convicted of importuning for an immoral purpose, in particular, attempting to procure a (male) youth for Bidney. (2) These are the sort of people who style themselves anti-fascists.

In September 1984, Gerry Gable penned a glowing obituary for the faggot and former street thug Bidney in Searchlight magazine. In October 1987, Gable gave a notorious interview to the Jewish Chronicle in which he boasted to that paper that he had a son serving in the Israeli Army. This was shortly before the start of the Intifada; British Moslems should ask themselves how many Palestinians, your fellow Moslems, many of them children, the son of this dedicated "anti-racist" murdered in cold blood for the heinous crime of throwing stones at brave Israeli soldiers, or simply for being in the wrong place at the wrong time.

In 1990, certain elements of the so-called anti-racist left in Britain parted company with Gable and his cronies; in its December 1990 issue, a left wing magazine called Return published two articles Black People Banned From Meeting and SEARCHLIGHT: The Slide into Racism. Leaving aside the well documented fact that Palestinians and most Moslems are not black, these articles were extremely informative, as was the statement issued by the so-called CARF collective at about the same time. Searchlight (read Gerry Gable) was accused of increasingly prioritising the struggle against eternal anti-Semitism over more mundane matters, such as people being beaten up by the police, and in gallant little Israel, murdered by the security services. In its twenty plus year history as a magazine, Searchlight has never once attacked, much less condemned, Zionist atrocities against the Palestinian people.

The reality is of course that Gable in particular doesn't give a monkey's about Moslems, nor about any other minority for that matter. It is highly doubtful if he even cares about the Jews, because a close examination of his literature and research shows clearly that he lies to Jews just as freely as he lies to goyim. The current writer has pointed this out to the "Jewish" Chronicle on more than one occasion, but the simple fact is that these Machiavellian Zionist schemers just don't care.

Ray Hill - Bigot And Agent Provocateur

Ray Hill puts his name to a column in Searchlight magazine, although it is doubtful if he writes it. Hill was a member of the British Movement in the late sixties, fled the country while on bail for assaulting a Jewish café owner, then became involved in the sordid world of far right politics in South Africa as well. In 1978, he was a founder member of the short lived South African National Front, an organisation which quickly made a name for itself for disseminating race hate propaganda, so much so that questions were raised about it in Parliament, and the supposedly so racist South Africans demanded that the "party" be prosecuted for incitement to racial hatred.

On his return to Britain, Hill became involved with one far right group after another, but in 1984 it was revealed that he had been working for Searchlight since 1979. Hill claimed, and still claims, that in South Africa he had experienced a change of heart when he saw an Indian family - again, perhaps your fellow Moslems - standing by the roadside after they had been expelled from their home. It was then, he says, that he began feeding information to a Jewish anti-fascist organisation.

In reality, in South Africa, Hill was in the pay of wealthy Zionist Jews who used him as an agent provocateur to smear the Herstigte Nasionale Party as anti-Semitic, and to incite hatred against non-whites. (3)

Incidentally, after he "came out" in March 1984, Hill told the News Of The World newspaper that "It all started as a bit of a game - the odd night out attacking a few Pakis. I even desecrated a synagogue." Whether or not Hill did desecrate a synagogue or attack "a few Pakis", he has certainly incited the less intelligent members of far right groups to attack people, including your fellow Moslems. It is not true that leopards never change their spots, but the best available evidence indicates that Ray Hill did not change his, he simply sold out for the proverbial thirty pieces of silver, although it is doubtful if he ever had any principles to begin with.

The Real Reason For Violence Against Moslems

Whatever the truth about the Searchlight Organisation, there is a very real problem in this country of violence against Moslems. The stock reaction of Searchlight and its ugly friends is to drag out a few photographs of dead Jews - usually from the typhus epidemic at Belsen - and scream Holocaust. The reality though is that violence against Moslems has absolutely nothing to do with either the horrors of the Second World War (in which the overwhelming majority of fatalities were white Gentiles) or with the Nazis' persecution of the Jews, which was anti-Semitism (not racism). Violence against Moslems in Britain is far worse than against blacks, even though Moslems (and Asians generally) frown on miscegenation, unlike many blacks. Indeed, blacks themselves often direct violence towards Moslems and Asians, although the media is coy about reporting such incidents. The most outstanding example in recent years was the purge of Uganda's Asians by that country's then dictator Idi Amin, and there have been many others since.

A closer examination reveals that this violence (and the hostility which leads to it) is not so much racial as economic. One of the great success stories in Britain in the 1980s and on into the 90s has been the rise of Asian (including Moslem) businessmen. At a time when many indigenous people find it difficult to make a living, or even to find a job, resentment rises against the more successful. In the LA riots (after the Rodney King assault case) black rioters targeted not only whites but Korean shopkeepers, relative newcomers who had surely not oppressed American blacks, and were in any case not responsible for the brutalisation of a black motorist. This means in effect that the problem of such violence has little or nothing to do with the British National Party, which in any case has little support in any area of Britain outside of Tower Hamlets. There is though another menace to the Moslem community, and one which in the long term is far more serious than the odd spate of graffiti daubing or faceful of racial abuse, and this menace comes not from the so-called racists but from the "anti-racists".

Searchlight, The "Anti-Racist" Left And Violence Against Moslems

The Searchlight Organisation is part of a broad "popular front". This short pamphlet has demonstrated clearly that the Searchlight Organisation and its controllers don't really care about Moslems or anyone else. (4) The Moslems who attended the NUS meeting mentioned earlier will know this in any case, as will anyone who has done his homework on Gerry Gable and his gang. The rest of the popular front is made up largely of socialists and communists. True, there are a few fellow travellers and a great many outright dupes involved in it, including churchmen, rabbis, politicians of all shades, media personalities, unwary Moslems, and so on. But, the primary goal of the popular front is not to fight the mythical disease of racism but to spread the doctrine of socialism.

Socialism doesn't sound bad; the word itself has pleasing connotations, but socialism doesn't mean being sociable any more than it means supporting the trades union movement. In a nutshell, the economic policy of socialism means the state control of the means of production - confiscating private enterprise - and in broader terms, those of social policy, it has connotations which should have every right-thinking Moslem running for cover. Here is what you can expect under a socialist government. (5)

1) Higher taxes on the rich. This sounds like a good idea if you are in a low income bracket, but higher taxes imposed on the rich destroy their investment capital, not their spending money. Such higher taxes lead inevitably to less investment which leads in turn to higher prices for scarcer goods. Don't think either that the money expropriated from the rich will be given to the poor; it will be spent instead on promoting all manner of lunatic socialist schemes such as gay "rights", so-called women's rights and wasteful and unnecessary expenditure. All experience of socialist régimes proves that it is not the rich who are taxed the most, but the middle classes. This means doctors, accountants, and small businesses, eg Indian supermarkets.

2) Another thing you should consider before you endorse socialist policies by supporting "anti-racist" campaigns is the lunatic promotion of quotas. Socialists have succeeded in foisting so-called equal opportunity and anti-discrimination legislation on not only the public sector but, to a large extent, on the private sector. Such equal opportunities extend not just to race but to sexual orientation, which means that as an employer you could find yourself forced to employ a percentage of homosexuals - perhaps even AIDS sufferers - or face prosecution. [See also 5) below.]

3) The denigration of religion. Socialism is an atheistic philosophy, which is fine, if you want to be an atheist. But it is well known not only that Karl Marx called religion the opium of the people but that all dedicated socialist/communist governments have waged war on organised religion. (6) Don't fall for the claptrap of religious freedom and self-determination, that's only until they seize power.

4) "Women's rights". Over the past few years there has been a systematic campaign in the West to denigrate Islam by misrepresenting it as a religion based entirely on patriarchy in which women are treated like dirt. This propaganda campaign is waged partly by Zionists to detract from their brutalisation of the Palestinian people, partly by communists to persuade women that they are an oppressed minority, but mostly by so-called feminists, many of whom are men-hating lesbians. It should come as no surprise to anyone that the Labour MP Clare Short is both an enemy of Islam and an uncompromising supporter of Searchlight. The movement for women's rights includes, among other things, support for lesbian motherhood, the indoctrination of children, and abortion on demand.

5) Gay "rights". The concept of homosexuality is totally anathema to Islam; if the gay "rights" lobby get their way, your children will be given compulsory gay lessons in school which will teach them that homosexuality is a positive alternative [sic] to being straight. This has in fact already happened to a great extent under some of the country's more loony left education authorities. Homosexuals are also heavy drinkers and drugs users; in fact they practice many varieties of substance abuse as well as abusing their bodies by inserting all manner of strange objects into their bodily orifices.

Although homosexuals wail and whine about racism, they have never been shy about foisting the blame for their own depraved sexual practices onto ethnic minorities, especially blacks. The militant homosexual rights activist Peter Tatchell claimed once that up to 23% of the population of Uganda and 25% of the population of Malawi were infected with AIDS. (7) In the United States, homosexuals have even attempted to prevent blood donor screening on the grounds that it is discriminatory. (8)

Conclusion

All the above groups condemn - or profess to condemn - racially motivated violence, bigotry and hatred, against Moslems and against other ethnic minorities. It remains to be seen how much of this condemnation is sincere, in the case of the Searchlight Organisation, not much. People who fly into paroxysms of rage over mischief-makers sending offensive leaflets through the post while turning a blind eye to the maiming and slaughter of Palestinian children are clearly not to be trusted. Many more examples of Gable and company's hypocrisy could be given, but the point should be taken. Any Moslem who gives any support, financial or otherwise, to the Searchlight Organisation or any of its popular front fellow travellers, should heed the time honoured proverb that he who sups with the Devil needs a long spoon.
