THERE WERE NO GAS CHAMBERS AT AUSCHWITZ!!

Sensational claim by "Searchlight" columnist

Expose the racists!!

Expose the extremists!!

Many anti-fascist activists believe that Searchlight magazine is leading the fight against fascism, anti-Semitism, racial intolerance and extremist violence. Boy, have we got news for them! Searchlight columnist Ray Hill claims to be a reformed Nazi. Presumably this means that he no longer denies the Holocaust? After all, only Nazis deny the Holocaust, as Searchlight never stops telling us. Then it should come as a big surprise to read in the magazine's HILL STREET NEWS column for January 1994 that Hill makes the following amazing statement: "there were no gas chambers at Auschwitz" !!! Perhaps just as amazing is the fact that on the very same page, Searchlight carries an advertisement for a publication called British Patriot, (see page 3). This was the title of a magazine, now long defunct, published by the neo-Nazi British Movement. Now it belongs to a magazine run by one Mark Cotterill, who has even been denounced by Searchlight as a fascist.

If that surprises you, then we have an even bigger shock in store for you, because Ray "there were no gas chambers at Auschwitz" Hill is far from the only former Nazi connected with this supposedly anti-fascist magazine. Another reformed far rightist is Sonia Hochfelder, at least, that was her maiden name. Today she's better known as Sonia Gable, correspondent of the Searchlight Educational Trust and wife of long time editor and publisher Gerry.

The proof can be found on page 3. This photograph appeared in an early issue of Searchlight. Seven years later she tied the knot with Gerry. Strange, very strange. On the same page are some vile racist stickers which were advertised on the front page of a 1979 issue of Searchlight. The magazine continues to plug such literature to this day, often under the subtle guise of attacking it. Who does Mr Gable think he is kidding?

Who's Jew?

In October 1987, Gerry Gable boasted to the fanatically Zionist Jewish Chronicle that one of his sons by his first marriage was serving in the Israeli army. Barely a month later the intifada broke out, which raises the obvious question, did the son of this dedicated "anti-racist" murder Palestinian schoolchildren who had dared to throw rocks at brave Israeli soldiers? Anti-fascism for some!

But there is something even stranger about Mr Gable. He claims to be a Jew, and the fact that his son lives in Israel must mean he has some (albeit tenuous) Jewish connection, but in what sense is he a Jew? Jews attend synagogues, surely? Yet, strangely, the May 1992 issue of the London-based "Jewish events magazine" New Moon revealed that "...Searchlight editor, Gerry Gable has never been a member of a synagogue." Further confirmation Opposite: How can this man speak for the Jews? There is no report of his bar mitzvah in the Jewish Chronicle for January 1950, and it seems extremely doubtful that he was bar mitzvahed. He married in a registry office and he's never been a member of a synagogue. Not only that, he has some strange drinking pals for a Jewish anti-fascist. Aren't you afraid Ray Hill would like to turn you into a lampshade, Gerry?

Below left: Searchlight has published a number of such advertisements over the years. One can only guess how many recruits such endorsement has brought far right hate groups. Below right: an advertisement for Mark Cotterill's British Patriot, free publicity in Searchlight. Beneath that, Sonia Hochfelder, now Sonia Gable. If "former fascist" Sonia is now a dedicated anti-fascist, how come "former fascist" Mark Cotterill remains an ongoing fascist? Sauce for the goose, sauce for the gander. Or do only kosher chickens count?

What the Politicians are NOT telling you

The British contingent was very representative of all sections of the fascist movement. Eddie Morrison from the BNP, Michael McLaughlan and the prison officer Brian Baldwin from the British Movement (Baldwin is now in the BNP); Donald Mudie and Ray Sweetman from the National Socialist Party UK; Keith Thompson, Mike Griffin, Della Aleksander from the League of St. George; Sonia Hochfelder of the National Party (she has since then joined and left the Front); and there were also a number of National Front members including, according to our information, Ian Souter Clarence and Don Sawyer.

of the lack of Gable's kosher credentials, apart from his marriage to a former member of - what he refers to as - the fascist National Front, is the actual marriage certificate, which reveals that they were married at Redbridge Register Office. Surely if Gable is any sort of Jew he would have married in a synagogue? And has anyone ever seen him wearing a skullcap?

And, wait a minute, look at the address given for the happy couple at the time of their marriage, it's the same one. That means that, in old-fashioned parlance, they were living in sin. What would the rabbi think? But why should he care? He's more likely to be seen discussing how best to incite violence against the local Asian newsagent over milkshakes and bacon rolls in a Tower Hamlets café with his latest mole, than reading the Torah.

In case the reader thinks we're being facetious, we'd like to refer him to something Ray Hill allegedly told the News of the World at about the same time. On March 25 that year, Hill "came out" in a big feature in the Sunday tabloid in which he was quoted thus: "It all started as a bit of a game - the odd night out attacking a few Pakis. I even desecrated a synagogue." Perhaps he beat up "a few Pakis" with Mr Gable. And perhaps they desecrated a synagogue together. How say you, Gerry? Certainly Mr Gable appears to be well forewarned about criminal activity on the far right.

In the Guardian, July 24, 1990, Searchlight was said to have warned the Board of Deputies of British Jews about the desecration of an Edmonton cemetery three weeks before it happened. A fortnight later, an article in the Mail on Sunday (August 5), warned that a worldwide fascist network was behind the recent desecration of Jewish graves. Gable's "informants" said they were co-ordinated by the British Movement, the British National Party, German and Dutch fascist groups and the Ku Klux Klan. We can't help thinking that Mr Gable knows more about all this than he is letting on. Careful with those aerosol cans, Gerry.

Gable's ace detective work may be well respected by the media - along with Russell Grant's prophecies and Templegate's racing tips - but he shows a particular lack of respect for others who tread the same path. And his disdain for anti-fascists seems to be in direct proportion to the darkness of their skins. In the New Moon article already alluded to, it is claimed that: "...Gable reserves particular scorn for the new British Black leaders like Lee Jasper of the Society of Black Lawyers, who, he says, refuse to acknowledge that Blacks can learn from the Jewish experience. 'I don't need Jasper to tell me whether I am anti-racist. These are people who represent nobody but themselves,' says Gable." You should know, Gerry. But as your best pal is a (hee hee) former Nazi, as is your wife, and as you've never been a member of a synagogue, you can hardly claim to speak for the Jews. And as your skin is white - however much you may wish it weren't - you can hardly claim to speak for the blacks either.

And certainly most blacks don't want you or your kind to speak for them, when your magazine refers to them as "a Gucci-outfitted bunch of middle-class wankers", (June 1992, page 11), and when your correspondent "former under-cover 'anti-racist'" Ray Hill refers to black organisations "consisting of three men and a dog", (Letters column, Labour Briefing, September 1991).

The Bizarre World Of Mrs Sonia Gable

Let's return to sweet Sonia for a bit. [A bit of what? No, only joking. We don't believe any of the nasty rumours the far right have been spreading about her sexual habits. Or yours, Gerry. Honest.] When you married her, her occupation was listed as inspector of taxes for the Inland Revenue. Right? That's rather a sensitive position, isn't it? Your magazine makes a great deal of noise about "Nazis" and their fellow travellers working in sensitive - or even well-paid - jobs. You hounded civil servant Kathy Murphy, and Mercedes Benz worker Steve Brady, but what about sweet Sonia? If she was working for the Inland Revenue when she was in the National Front, surely she could have had access to people's files. Didn't your magazine once make allegations over National Front "populist" Roy Painter not stamping his employees' cards? More to the point, if Sonia was working for the Inland Revenue at the same time she was married to you, wouldn't that have given her access to files of racists and fascists which she could have passed on to you? We're not suggesting for one minute that she would have, but we are suggesting that no double standards be applied with regard to fascists and anti-fascists, who are both enemies of the state and of the people.

Another thing about sweet Sonia: an anonymous pornographic leaflet published recently (by the homosexual "Nazi" Martin Webster and presumed to have been illustrated by his buddy Robert Roberts) depicts Sonia as a Searchlight mole as well as free with her sexual favours. Sonia's old "Nazi" cronies have been remarkably honourable towards her; when we suggested that she'd been a right old slapper, Keith Thompson said of her that:

"I wouldn't like to judge her. Even though she's shown herself to be lacking in any integrity at all. I feel that what people do in private is no one else's business. In man-woman relationships. Not like with Webster, Robert Edwards the cartoonist and all that bloody crowd." (Referring to Webster's gay circle). This was remarkable chivalrous, especially considering that Thompson was smeared as a paid Searchlight informant by Sonia's hatemongering spouse when Gerry stood trial with Red Action gangster Gary O'Shea in 1992 for conspiracy to effect public disorder in Kensington Library the previous year. Malcolm Smith and Steve Brady were equally magnanimous. Re the claim in the pornographic leaflet, Sonia was not any kind of mole. Again, here is what Keith Thompson had to say about her: "I said to Sonia Hochfelder: 'Are you a Jew?' She said: 'My father used to be.' Those were her exact words. Her mother was a Gentile, her father used to be a Jew. They lived within 200 yards of me at one point. I first met her around 1977; she'd been in some lunatic Maoist organisation at Imperial College, where Brady was. She went into the NF, made donations to the National Front, worked very well, worked very hard, seemed in every way genuine. Obviously we never really trusted her but it seemed unlikely to me that she was a spy because she looked so much like a spy; she was a walking caricature of a Jew really. That's all I can say about her."

In other words, Sonia was, again, no manner of mole; she made no secret of her ethnic origins, and in the August 12, 1976 issue of League Review, the theoretical journal of the "Nazi fan club" League of St. George, an article appeared called No More Wars Between Brothers. Written by none other than Sonia Hochfelder, it contained a report on the Diksmuide festival and the following phrase: "The enemies of the White Race operate on an international scale and will continue to dictate to us if we fight amongst ourselves." Who are these enemies, Sonia? The "International Jews", perhaps? Two years later she was still going strong, and in August 1978, C. Horner wrote in to the journal to complain thus: "Dear Sir, I am heartily sick and tired of Jew S. Hochfelder's ceaseless efforts to force this troublesome tribe of self chosen people down our throats...Must their infiltration, whining and take-over be put up with even in the last bastions of white-racial circles?"

So there we have the truth about Sonia (Searchlight mole) Hochfelder. Mole indeed. Not that we begrudge her her past, but if her husband is going to continue hounding former fascists and fellow travellers who have long since left far right extremist politics, shouldn't he apply the same criterion to his lovely wife? He has for instance taken pot shots at Mark Cotterill; the November 1993 issue of Searchlight referred to Cotterill as an "ongoing fascist". At the time this was written, Cotterill was actually a member of the Conservative Party, and a former member of the "anti-fascist" National Front.

Question: When Is A "Racist" Not A "Racist"?

Answer: When He Works For Searchlight

Which brings us finally to Richard David Roberts (1949-82). Roberts was another "anti-racist" who worked for Searchlight. Or claimed to be an "anti-racist". He also used the name Marshall when he was hanging around with the National Front in Birmingham. In 1975, Roberts/Marshall spoke out against immigration in no uncertain terms; he said: "WE have more than our fair share of Blacks in the urban Industrial areas, now if we had enough tree's [sic] they could swing on them to their hearts [sic] content." This quote was published in the August 1975 issue of Searchlight. Earlier that year he'd been arrested for conspiracy to assault and rob the staff of an Indian restaurant, and the following March he was convicted on the conspiracy to assault charge. Later he was gaoled for assaulting National Front members at a demonstration. Talk about eclectic!

All sorts of garbage was written about Roberts at the time and the so-called Nazi underground he was alleged to have infiltrated to unmask and smash, but the question must remain, was Roberts an undercover "anti-racist" or was he really a dedicated Nazi?

The same question might be asked of Gerry Gable considering the company he has kept over the years: sweet Sonia, Dave Roberts and Ray Hill. We haven't mentioned in this short study Tim Hepple, who also incited hatred and violence against blacks, but in conclusion we will mention en passant two anti-fascists who have been harassed by or on account of Searchlight: Larry O'Hara and Leon Greenman.

Larry O'Hara is a member of the Green Party. A gullible, dyed-in-the-wool Marxist, he has lately been seeing conspiracies everywhere, which is hardly surprising since he has been libelled from pillar to post on account of his exposing Gable's perfidy, and his daring to challenge Searchlight's generally accepted formula of branding everyone to the right of Neil Kinnock a fascist, anti-Semite and Hitler-worshipping lunatic. As well as libels (O'Hara is said to work for something called "nazi counter-intelligence"), he has been the near victim of a special parcel delivery - men with mallets - and has been hounded at his place of work.

The other anti-fascist who has been victimised after appearing in Searchlight is 83 year old Auschwitz survivor Leon Greenman. On June 21 this year, the London Evening Standard (LATE PRICES EXTRA) reported that somebody had heaved a brick through the window of his Ilford home. Mr Greenman's photograph last appeared in the November 1993 issue of Gable's hate-filled rag. The Standard quoted somebody named Gerry Gable, who was said to be "Britain's foremost expert on far-right violence". He put the blame on the quasi-mythical Combat 18. Funny thing is that Gerry lives in Ilford himself, barely a stone's throw away.
