

RACIST "CHARITY" TO RECEIVE LOTTERY FUNDING

BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY MEMBER AND REJECT IN LINE FOR MASSIVE HANDOUTS.

A "Charity" is to receive a donation of £153,000 to promote Holocaust "Education" and racial tolerance, even though one of its researchers is a paid up member of the British National Party, it was claimed yesterday. The Searchlight Educational Trust, which was founded in 1992 by Zionist activist Gerry Gable and his wife Sonia, a former leading Nazi, is in reality a front for Searchlight magazine, a supposedly anti-racist monthly which has over the years attacked Black activists and defended the Metropolitan Police against charges of racism.

In 1988, editor Gerry Gable referred to Nation of Islam Leader Louis Farrakhan as a black worm, and five years later in the magazine's Hill Street News column, former British National Party press officer Ray Hill branded Black Separatists as Gucci-outfitted middle class wankers. Hill was kicked out of the BNP in 1984 after he boasted to the News Of The World that he had desecrated a synagogue.

Another member of the Searchlight editorial board, Nick Lowles, is still a fully paid up member of the British National Party, and is rumoured to have made a substantial donation to the BNP's fighting fund at its annual rally late last year. Incredibly, Lowles was commissioned by the Independent newspaper to interview BNP Führer-in-waiting Nick Griffin last month. The January 7th edition of the broadsheet carried what can only be described as a hagiographic article on convicted race-hater Griffin.

Asked how the Trust intends to spend the lottery money, SET academic consultant Michael Billig said that most of it had already been spent; Searchlight magazine and its distributor Central Books are currently being sued for libel by two men it has accused of spying for M.I.5. and sexually abusing young children. Searchlight's lawyers, Mischcon de Reya, were unavailable for comment last night, but they did confirm that they had received a hefty retainer from Gerry Gable and Ray Hill. Mischcon de Reya are still under a cloud after allegedly ripping off the Diana Princess of Wales Memorial Fund. Last year the firm's senior partner, Anthony Julius, ran off with a client's wife.
