"EACH FOR ALL AND ALL FOR EACH"

STORY IN BRIEF OF "BABES IN THE WOOD"

The brother of Brame Goshall died, entrusting to him the care of his two children. Should he receive the children, Brame Goshall is to benefit by his brother's will. The wicked old Brame sees a fortune coming his way if he can get rid of them, so he takes into his confidence two Robbers, who agree to kill them for a large sum of the money which the Brame will receive when the Babes are dead.

The Robbers take the Babes into Sherwood Forest—but Robin Hood hears of their bad intentions and saves the Babes and returns them to their rightful position in the Brame's Palace, where they are looked after by Maid Marian and Robin Hood.
