Arina Lazgiiian was a student for five years from 2010–2015 at the Moscow Conservatory under Vera Gornostayeva. She has performed in various concert halls in Moscow and St Petersburg, after winning the Open Regional Piano Competition, the Yevgeniy Mravinsky Piano Competition and the Arthur Rubinstein Piano Competition, all in St Petersburg. She has also performed in the Salle Cortot in Paris, in Salzburg, Austria and in Regensburg, Germany and won the Città di Barletta International Piano Competition, Italy. Arina Lazgiiian is now studying for a Master's degree in performance at the Royal College of Music under Vanessa Latache.

Since arriving at the Royal College of Music in London, she has won the RCM Concerto Competition for 2017, playing Saint-Saens' Concerto no. 2 and will perform this work again with the RCM Symphony Orchestra on Thursday 9 and Friday 10 November in the Amaryllis Fleming Concert Hall at the Royal College of Music, at 7.30 pm. Arina also won the Hopkinson Gold Medal for piano this year.
