ABOUT NEXT WEEK'S PLAY

"GLAMOUR GIRL". From the pen of R. Howard Arundel, promises to be one of the most riotous comedies seen at this theatre for some time. It has just completed a thirty week tour of the provinces where it earned such high praise as this: "full of good broad comedy, and will be appreciated by Northern audiences." (Daily Mail). "Full of Laughs." (The Liverpool Echo). "Had the audience rocking in their seats." (The Stage).

The action of the play takes place in a living room behind a fish and chip shop in Liverpool, where Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fowler reside with their daughter Marvina—needless to say Marvina is the cause of all the trouble.

It is fairly safe to say there is almost a laugh a minute in this funniest of Northcountry comedies.
