CHOIR OF KING'S COLLEGE CAMBRIDGE

“there are few more thrilling things in British music than Britten Sinfonia on top form.”

The Independent

Arvo Pärt Cantus in memoriam Benjamin Britten
Britten A Ceremony of Carols
Britten St Nicolas

Stephen Cleobury conductor
James Gilchrist tenor
Choir of King's College, Cambridge

The Choir of King's College, Cambridge has become synonymous with Christmas through their annual broadcasts of A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols. Getting the festive season underway in this concert they perform two of Britten's enchanting choral masterpieces. Britten Sinfonia opens the performance with Arvo Pärt's atmospheric Cantus written in memory of Benjamin Britten.
