

and pain of pursuing his dream. Eden is both a fine character study and, surely, the most realistic movie ever about clubbing life, with an outstanding soundtrack (Daft Punk, Frankie Knuckles and many, many more).

Gemma Boverly (15)

Thu 24 Sept at 2.30 & 7.30pm

2015 France/UK 99 mins (partially subtitled)

DIRECTOR: ANNE FONTAINE

STARS: FABRICE LUCHINI, GEMMA ARTERTON, JASON FLEMYNG

Martin (Luchini), an ex-Parisian with a deep appreciation for Gustave Flaubert, has settled in a Normandy village as a baker. An English couple, Gemma (Arterton) and Charles Boverly (Flemyng), move into an old property across the road. As Martin engages with them, he observes that their actions, as well as their names, echo those of the leading characters in Flaubert's 1856 masterpiece Madame Bovary. Based on the comic strip and graphic novel by Posy Simmonds.

Mistress America (15)

Tue 29 Sept at 7.30pm

2015 USA 84 mins

DIRECTOR: NOAH BAUMBACH

STARS: GRETA GERWIG, LOLA KIRKE, HEATHER LIND, CINDY CHEUNG

Tracy (Kirke) is a lonely and disillusioned college freshman – until she's swept up in the whirlwind created by her soon-to-be stepsister Brooke (Gerwig). Can Brooke's adventurous spirit and crazy schemes conquer all? Reuniting Baumbach's twin muses – Gerwig and New York City – after the wonderful Frances Ha, and "bristling with kinetic energy" (Variety), Mistress America is a long-overdue reinvention of screwball comedy.

Mr. Holmes (PG)

Tue 1 Sept at 7.30pm

2015 UK/USA 104 mins

DIRECTOR: BILL CONDON

STARS: IAN MCKELLEN, LAURA LINNEY, HIROYUKI SANADA

Returning due to exceptional public demand! In his 90s and long retired, Sherlock Holmes keeps bees on the Sussex coast. Trying to write his memoirs, Holmes battles his failing memory to reflect on an unsolved case. With its novel perspective on a familiar, much-loved subject, Mr. Holmes is a rich and poignant character study.

The Choir (PG)

Thu 3 Sept at 2.30 & 7.30pm

2015 USA 103 mins

DIRECTOR: FRANCOIS GIRARD

STARS: DUSTIN HOFFMAN, EDDIE IZZARD, DEBRA WINGER

When 12-year-old Stet's mother dies, his estranged father packs him off to an elite boarding school, the National Boychoir Academy. Stet's talent as a singer and his father's money ensures that he is allowed in, but can the young tearaway fit into this privileged environment and rebuild his family life? As the choirmaster, Hoffman leads a distinguished adult cast, and the boys sing beautifully.

L'Atalante (PG)

35mm

Tue 8 Sept at 7.30pm

1934 France 89 mins (subtitled)

DIRECTOR: JEAN VIGO

STARS: DITA PARLO, JEAN DASTE, MICHEL SIMON

As part of the nationwide Scalarama programme, the David Lean is proud to present an early French classic on 35mm. Juliette (Parlo) marries barge captain Jean (Dasté) and they spend their honeymoon on his craft, L'Atalante. At once simple and surreal, this is a unique masterpiece with "unforgettable, dream-like images... more modern than anything being made today" (The Guardian).

Love & Mercy (12A)

Thu 10 Sept at 11am & 7.30pm

2015 USA 121 mins

DIRECTOR: BILL POHLAD

STARS: PAUL DANO, JOHN CUSACK, ELIZABETH BANKS, PAUL GIAMATTI

In the late 1960s, Beach Boys songwriter Brian Wilson (Dano) strives to create visionary music (Pet Sounds, Good Vibrations) despite family resistance and failing mental health. In the 1980s, new girlfriend Melinda (Banks) attempts to rescue Wilson (now played by Cusack) from manipulative therapist Eugene Landy (Giamatti). As Love & Mercy's creative script cuts nimbly between the two eras, Dano brilliantly portrays the younger Wilson's frailty and talent (he can really sing, too), while Banks gently brings vitality to an almost saintly role. We're also great fans of Giamatti's toupee!

Inside Out (U)

Tue 15 Sept at 5.15pm & Sat 19 Sept at 2.30pm

2015 USA 94 mins

DIRECTOR: PETE DOCTER, RONALDO DEL CARMEN

STARS: AMY POEHLER, KAITLYN DIAS, DIANE LANE, KYLE MACLAUGHLAN

The world of eleven-year-old Riley is turned upside-down when she moves home – and we take the journey in the company of her emotions: Joy, Sadness, Fear, Anger and Disgust. With this novel, hilarious and moving animation, Pixar have returned to the trailblazing form that brought us Up, WALL·E and the Toy Story trilogy. "An instant classic" (The Independent).

Ruth & Alex (12A)

Thu 17 Sept at 2.30 & 7.30pm

2015 USA 92 mins

DIRECTOR: RICHARD LONCRAINE

STARS: DIANE KEATON, MORGAN FREEMAN, CYNTHIA NIXON

Keaton and Freeman play a long-married couple who cherish their apartment but can no longer cope with it being – to quote the US title – 5 Floors Up. With lead performances that are "perfectly in sync" (New York Times), this is a gentle comedy-drama about the perils of the real estate market and the rewards of growing old together.

Eden (15)

Tue 22 Sept at 7.30pm

2015 France 131 mins (subtitled)

DIRECTOR: MIA HANSEN-LØVE

STARS: FELIX DE GIVRY, PAULINE ETIENNE, VINCENT MACAIGNE

Paris, 1992. "It was sort of happy, with a gentle melody. A kind of whistling. Tiny flutes...small sounds." After discovering garage music at an underground party, teenager Paul lets his studies slide and forms a DJ duo. We follow Paul and his friends and lovers as his star rises and falls over the years to come, and he discovers the joy
