

ARTIST ROOMS

GILBERT & GEORGE

Gilbert & George are a Turner Prize-winning artist partnership, who have created art and shared their lives together for fifty years. By presenting themselves as 'living sculptures' they challenge the distinction between art and life; sacrificing their separate identities and turning the notion of creativity on its head.

The deadly serious and multi-layered pictures on display, drawn from the ARTIST ROOMS and Tate collections, explore universal themes including sex, faith and identity.

There will be a series of gallery tours and special events to accompany the exhibition.

Find out more and buy discounted tickets at brightonmuseums.org.uk or call our bookings team on 03000 290902

The ARTIST ROOMS touring programme is delivered by the National Galleries of Scotland and Tate in a partnership with Ferens Art Gallery until 2019, supported using public funding by the National Lottery through Arts Council England, by Art Fund and by the national Lottery through Creative Scotland.

ARTIST ROOMS

GILBERT & GEORGE

Gilbert & George EXISTERS 1984. ARTIST ROOMS Tate and National Galleries of Scotland. Acquired jointly through The d'Offay Donation with assistance from the National Heritage Memorial Fund and Art Fund 2008. © Gilbert & George.

BRIGHTON MUSEUM &
ART GALLERY
28 APRIL –
2 SEPTEMBER
2018

Admission payable
Free for young people (under 26)
& members.

During our monthly Brighton Museum Free Days admission to the exhibition is free for everyone.

For more info visit

brightonmuseums.org.uk