CABLE STREET FESTIVAL

AT JW3

6 - 10 OCTOBER 2016

CABLE STREET FESTIVAL

October 2016 will mark the 80th anniversary of The Battle of Cable Street, when the people of the East End, across different communities, joined forces to stop Oswald Mosley and his British Union of Fascists from marching through their streets, and is remembered today by the Cable Street Mural.

Throughout the festival come to JW3, find yourself a listening post and hear real life testimonies from some of the people who were at the Battle of Cable Street. Plus you can wear your ire with pride and make a What's Your Battle badge. Whether its climate change or bad public transport etiquette, everybody has something they want to kick against.

Thursday 6 October

THE BATTLE OF CABLE STREET 2.30pm, £15

This walk, led by East End expert David Rosenberg, takes you along the route of the Battle of Cable Street, including Gardiner's Corner and Cable Street itself, to the mural. Discover the stories of those who took part, why it happened and how it halted the growth of fascism in the area.

Thursday 6 October

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION: PROTEST IN FILM

6.30pm, £11, £8 for JW3 or Rio members

Meet a panel of filmmakers who have harnessed their medium to document protest and affect political and social change. Yoav Segal, (The Battle of Cable Street), Isis Thompson (The Real Social Network) and Usayd Younis and Cassie Quarless (Generation Revolution) discuss their work and experience with Charlie Phillips, Head of Documentaries at The Guardian. This event will be taking place at the Rio Cinema, itself an East London institution with a long history of protest and radicalism. Generation Revolution will be screened separately at the Rio Cinema at 8.45pm.

To book please visit www.riocinema.org.uk or call 020 7241 9410.

Agent of Influence

Sunday 9 October

CABLE STREET GRAFFITI MURAL 2-3pm, £7 per child, £3 per adult

Yoav Segal - an acclaimed artist with a special connection to Cable Street - will teach you how to make your own mural. For ages 4-11. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

CRAFTERNOON: Create a beautiful mini painting to take home. For ages 2+, 2-5pm, FREE.

Sunday 9 October

CABLE STREET: THEN AND NOW 2pm, £10

In this talk, Dr Nadia Valman will bring vivid and sometimes surprising detail to the narrative of what exactly happened and how and why events unfolded as they did.

Sunday 9 October

HOW TO: BE AN ACTIVIST 3.30-5pm, £8

Three campaigners, Siân Berry (Green Party), Hannah Weisfeld (Yachad) and Will Jennings (A Folly for London), share their experiences and take you through the basics of activism. Whether you're a keyboard warrior or prefer direct action, you'll learn tactics and tools to help channel your concern into targeted and critical action and make an impact for change.

Sunday 9 October

AGENT OF INFLUENCE 5.30-6.30pm, £12

1936. Lady Pamela, fashion columnist and socialite, is recruited by MI5 to keep notes on Wallis Simpson and Edward VIII, suspected to be colluding with the German Embassy. Sarah Sigal's play is a 'comic tour de force' (The Stage) set against the backdrop of a Britain simmering with pre-war tension, royal scandal, rising fascism and the Battle of Cable Street.

Captain Ska

Sunday 9 October

CABLE STREET 80 PROTEST PARTY 7pm, £12, £10 web advance

A live gig with ska and synth reggae protest band Captain Ska, DJs Mourrka and Jamie Renton and VJ Miki Shaw. Come with your love, political fire and community spirit to celebrate the positive power of protest.

Monday 10 October

MAMA LOSCHEN: CABLE STREET 7.30pm, £8

Join us for a revolutionary evening of spoken word to commemorate the Battle of Cable Street. With poet Sam Berkson, historian David Rosenberg and comedian Ivor Dembina. Plus playwright and poet, Bernard Kops, will share his memories of being a child at the Battle of Cable Street.
