

CALLING YOUNG MUSICIANS! YOUR CHANCE TO PERFORM AT KLEZMER IN THE PARK 2017

The JMI is excited to announce the formation of the JMI Youth Big Band, a new youth ensemble dedicated to contemporary music of Jewish origin. The ensemble will draw inspiration from the great American big bands and Jewish music throughout the ages.

This is your opportunity to perform in front of 5000 people at Klezmer in the Park with world class musicians in an exciting new ensemble.

We are seeking young instrumentalists on:

Trumpet - Trombone - Saxophones
Piano - Guitar - Bass - Drums

of approximate grade 5+ standard with a passion for jazz, funk and contemporary music. (application overleaf)

Sam Eastmond

Stewart Curtis

The ensemble is led by Tzadik Label artist Sam Eastmond (The Spike Orchestra, John Zorn) and artist in residence Stewart Curtis (K-Groove, Brass Bottom Band, 33Records)

www.jmi.org.uk

JMI YOUTH BIG BAND APPLICATION FORM

Name:

Age:

Contact email:

Instrument/approx Grade:

Other Instruments/approx Grade:

Ensembles you currently play in:

Favourite band/artist:

We will require all musicians to be available for 3 rehearsals at SOAS, 11am-3pm - June 18th, July 16th and September date tbc - in preparation for a debut performance at this year's Klezmer In The Park on Sunday 10th September

Please return the form by email or post

Address: JMI, Room 536, SOAS,
Thornhaugh St, Russell Sq,
London, WC1H 0XG

Web: www.jmi.org.uk
Email: jewishmusic@jmi.org.uk
Tel: 0207 898 4307

If you would like to make a contribution towards the on-going development of this exciting new project, you can donate here: www.jmi.org.uk/donate

