JAMES LACEY

Born 1925, Hitchin, Hertfordshire, James Lacey studied at the Royal College of Art, gaining a first class diploma in printed textiles. He is the Chief Designer for a leading commercial industrial group. Having always had a strong feeling for animals, particularly cats, he first commenced drawing in the late 60's for personal pleasure.

He realised after many commissions by people who saw his work that he would have to take his gift more seriously. In recent years he has had many exhibitions in Manchester and the North of England.

In September 75 and Spring 76 five originals were made into limited edition prints of 250 each.
