The performance is approximately 3 hours in length including one interval of 15 minutes.

*First performance of this production:
Royal Shakespeare Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon, 19 September 1985
Barbican Theatre, London, 2 January 1986.*

Please do not smoke or use cameras or tape recorders in the auditorium. And please remember that noise such as whispering, coughing and rustling of programmes and the bleeping of digital watches can be distracting to performers and also spoil the performance for other members of the audience.

In accordance with the requirements of the Greater London Council, persons shall not be permitted to stand or sit in any of the gangways. The safety curtain must be lowered and raised in the presence of each audience.

The sculptured safety curtain and the foyer light sculpture were designed by Michael J. Santry.

This is a free cast list.

There is a 32-page programme available from the attendants. It contains critical viewpoints on the play, production photographs, a plot synopsis, information on sources, actors' biographies and other editorial material on this production. Price 70p.

In addition to the illustrated programme for Othello there is a specially designed poster available from the Bookstall. Price £2.25.
