THE PEACOCK
London Children's Ballet productions are an ideal way to introduce children to ballet. Stories are chosen to captivate the whole family, not just ballet enthusiasts. LCB is a leader in creating new narrative ballets including A Little Princess, Nanny McPhee, Ballet Shoes and The Secret Garden. The company of 57 dancers aged 9–16 has always impressed critics, and the professionalism of the productions, imaginative choreography and star quality of the dancers make LCB a sell-out success year after year.

Snow White

Mirror, mirror on the wall.
Who is the fairest of them all?

These words are enough to send tingles down the spine of any child with a vivid imagination and a penchant for fairytales. London Children’s Ballet returns to the West End with a glorious new production of Snow White, a captivating ballet adaptation of this beloved magical story. Based on the original Grimm’s fairytale and performed by 57 talented dancers, aged 9–16, this unmissable family outing is packed with intrigue, drama, humour and beauty.

Snow White is born in the midst of a raging snowstorm, which claims the life of her mother, the Queen. She grows up at the palace with her loving father, until one day a beautiful, beguiling woman appears. This woman, with powerful magic at her fingertips and an all-seeing mirror, steals the King’s heart and he marries her. But all is not well. When Snow White becomes the fairest of them all, the new queen is consumed with jealousy and plots a poisonous revenge on her lovely stepdaughter. The adventure leads Snow White into the forest where she finds new and rather unusual friends. But can these pint-sized people protect her from an evil queen, or will Snow White’s fate rest in the hand of a love-lorn prince?
