THEATRE PECKHAM

Into the Forest – based on the children's book by Anthony Browne – is the kind of story that leads children to ask many questions. In Theatre Peckham's new exciting, highly visual version with specially written original music, a group of children explore the text and pictures with help from the children in the audience. On stage, some of the brilliant young actors from TP's Theatre School and Performing Arts Workshops bring to life many characters never yet seen, but only imagined.

It's more than just THEATRE AND WORKSHOPS

Who WE ARE

We have been running for over 27 years and have 400 children from across South East London enrolled on our courses. We run approximately 30 courses a week for 3 terms a year for children aged 3-18 in the performing arts. We cover all abilities and we pride ourselves on being accessible for everyone by keeping our pricing as reasonable as possible. You and your children become part of the Theatre Peckham Team.

What WE BELIEVE

It's about creating opportunities.

Theatre Peckham believes that every child should have the opportunity to express their creativity, develop skills, confidence and their own unique personality. Whether it's learning Tap as a 3 year old to develop rhythm, group co-operation, musicality and confidence or attending our BTEC courses which enable young people to gain qualifications that will support their future chosen careers. We also encourage young people to audition for Theatre Peckham shows, as well as professional theatre and TV auditions if they fit the casting descriptions and are ready for the commitment.
