ELEMENTARY, MY DEAR HAWKINS

"I regret to inform you, sir, that the house was burgled in the night. Beside us through the dining-room window, sir — an astronomical job."
"What's missing, Hawkins?"
"Nothing irreplaceable, sir. It appears that the intruder was in a rather irresponsible mood. He left his shoe on the sideboard and his hat on the chandelier."
"The plot thickens! I've a strong suspicion that he nearly broke us out of gin and Rye's."

"How did you know, sir?"
"Bring me what's left of the Rose's Lime Juice and I'll make a statement which may assist you in your investigations... And Hawkins — remind me not to forget my birthday in future."
