RUSACK'S HOTEL

ST. ANDREWS

RUSACK'S of old stood high in the hotel world for over 50 years. Rusack's of to-day takes first place among the leading hotels of Scotland, embracing all in an atmosphere of health and hospitality. Here the art of living is delightfully interpreted with food, furnishings, conveniences and comfort.

Its situation commands the world's finest golf view overlooking the first tee. Rusack's of the future will seek to maintain a world-wide reputation for Scotland's leading hotel. We welcome in the spirit of true international friendship visitors from overseas, and in the great Scottish tradition of "Mine Host" use our unique opportunities to create and to spread the true spirit of goodwill.

The Dining Room

Conveniently situated on the ground floor, with an assortment of tables suitable for parties of varying numbers, where linen, silver and table appointments are the pride of the staff and where the management seek to win a world-wide reputation for Scottish hotels and Scottish fare by providing the best possible that the country can produce.
