AGATHA CHRISTIE'S

7TH

FABULOUS YEAR

OF

THE MOSETTRAP

"The house lights dim, the curtain rises on a pitch-black stage. After a moment's silence—no angels pass—somebody whistles the opening bars of "Three Blind Mice." Then, clearly, for the last time in her life, a woman screams. The first mouse has been caught in "The Mousetrap," at the Ambassadors Theatre, and we are smugly in Agatha Christie-land.

...what a wily mistress of criminal ceremonies Agatha Christie is. She is like a perfect hostess serving hambock at a cocktail party."

—Gavin Lambert, Evening Standard

NEWEST

WHODUNNIT

THE UNEXPECTED GUEST

The impact is tremendous...
...and just when the murder seems solved, all the ends tied up, and you are groping for your hat, Miss Christie pulls her almighty knock-out punch. From a dazed horizontal position I admit her complete victory."

—Felix Barker, Evening News

AT THE

Produced by...

Theatre-goers know that every real success is a tribute to the producer.

Mr. Therm in “The Modern Home” (a sustained success!) is the leading man and producer too—producing unlimited hot water from his instantaneous gas water heaters.

Call at your local showroom for details of his brilliant performance.

Do not fail to see the sink heater that gives hot or boiling water. For cash, or on very easy terms.
