Pinocchio is a talking puppet with a big heart. His dream is to become a real boy one day. But the wise Blue Fairy says Pinocchio must be good before he can become human and, well, sometimes being good is hard, isn't it? While his friend Mr. Cricket, the Blue Fairy and his old father Gepetto the puppet-maker may try to help him make the right choices, in the end it is Pinocchio himself who must forge his own path.

Our 2015 Christmas pantomime promises to be a rollercoaster of friendship, adventure and song, together with a pinch of magic, some talking animals and one extremely long nose! And maybe, just maybe, dreams really can come true.
